FBI Nabs Easterner For Theft

A Philadelphia man was arrested by FBI agents Thursday, May 18, on charges of transporting rare coins across state lines. They were stolen from New York coin dealer Max Kaplan last October.

Neil J. Ward, 41, described as a "jobless Philadelphian" was brought before U. S. Commissioner Edward W. Furia in Philadelphia.

The charges were transporting $7,626 worth of stolen rare coins and paper money across state lines. The total coin loot in two suitcases amounted to $40,000, according to Kaplan.

Ward was one of two suspects arrested in Los Angeles as he attempted to sell the coins thought to be from the Kaplan loot. A second suspect was apprehended in California but he disappeared while he was free on bond.

Coins were confiscated from four Los Angeles area dealers by the FBI.

The coins recovered were mostly silver and paper money, according to Kaplan, but did not include gold coins.

"Hundreds and hundreds of gold pieces, foreign and U.S. were taken," said Kaplan.

A 1879 U.S. $4 gold stella was missing. Other stolen coins were two $20 pioneer gold pieces, an 1825 $2½, a 1926-S $20, 12 $3 pieces, 1806 and 1813 $5 pieces, and commemorative gold pieces.

Twenty-five or 30 $1 gold pieces, 14 $10 gold pieces, 14 $20 pieces, 35 or 40 $2½ pieces including an unc. 1911-D, and proof 1905, 1907, a complete proof set of Barber dimes and two proof sets of Barber halves were among the items taken.

Kaplan and his wife were returning from the Washington convention of the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association in October when the theft occurred.

They stopped at a Howard Johnson.

A. N. A.'s Federal Charter Renewed May 15 In Capital

Officials And Congressmen At Ceremonies

The American Numismatic Association's federal charter—one of the few in the nation for this type of organization — was renewed May 15 in Washington, D. C., with ceremonies attended by key A.N.A. figures.

One of these figures, C. C. (Tim) Shroyer, of Fremont, Ohio, who made an appearance in Sidney, Ohio, later in the week, said the renewal was perpetual, and that the A.N.A. would forever hold the privileged document.

Heading the list of signers was Admiral O. H. Dodson USN (Ret.) of Detroit, president of the American Numismatic Association.

Other officials included Shroyer, who is currently serving as first vice president of the A.N.A.; Lewis M. Reagan, Wichita, Kans., general secretary; Harry Lessin, Norwalk, Conn., legal counsel; Louis S. Werner, New York, sergeant at arms.

Also signing were Richard McCabe, Ellis Edlowitz, A.N.A.'s Washington counsel; Charles Peters, F. C. Schneider and H. R. Brickert, all of Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Vernon Sheldon, of Chicago, were among the dignitaries at the signing; Sheldon is a past president of the American Numismatic Association.

One member of the group of spectators watching the ceremony had a special interest—Congressman John M. Ashbrook (17th-Ohio).

It was his father, Congressman William A. Ashbrook of Johns-

Florida Man Candidate For A.N.A. Board

Vernon L. Oblisk

Vernon L. Oblisk, Bradenton, Fla., numismatist who is seeking election to the American Numismatic Association's Board of Governors, has been a collector of coins for 35 years.

He specializes in ancient Greek, Roman, U. S. types, Canadian series and Bradenburg-Ansbach-Bayreuth. Recently he has become interested in the monies of the Confederate States of America.

The 52-year-old collector was formerly a plant manager at the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. in Akron, Ohio, a post he held for 15 years. Presently he is an accountant, watchmaker and jeweler.

A member of the A.N.A. since January 1, 1936, Oblisk holds Membership No. 5016. He organized the Akron Coin Club in 1938, and served as its charter president. Later he was secretary-treasurer of the club and renamed chief executive.

He is past president of the Canton, Ohio, Coin Club, the Ohio State Numismatic Society, and served as A.N.A. district secretary for Ohio. In 1939 he was a member of the A.N.A. resolution committee.

Presidential Medal Series Announced By Dayton Firm

President John Fitzgerald Kennedy's medal by Presidential Art Medals, Inc.

A series of finely sculptured presidential medals, beginning with John Fitzgerald Kennedy, is announced by the Presidential Art Medals, Inc., of Dayton, Ohio.

Frank Darner, president of the firm, said the entire series—which will eventually include all presidents—will be struck by the Medallion Art Company of New York.

He pointed out that the Medallion Art Firm is the only American organization devoted exclusively to sculptured bas-relief.

President Kennedy's medal will be followed by one of Abraham Lincoln, Presidential Art officials said. They plan to issue three or four medals until the series is complete. New medals will be struck thereafter as presidents are inaugurated.

Ralph Menconi was the designer and sculptor of the first medal, selected because of his reputation in full portrait and high relief work. The leaflets which accompany each medal describe Menconi's talents in detail.

The medal, slightly larger than a half dollar and one-third thicker to provide correct balance, will grow in value, the Dayton firm spokesman said as he pointed to the limited production of the precious medals, the high quality of Medallion Art Co. work and the practical size.

Bronze medals sell for $2.50, silver (.999 plus) at $10; gold (22 kt.) (offered subject to U. S. Treasury approval) at $150 and pure platinum, $500.

Only 10 medals will be struck in platinum, 100 in gold and 6,500 in silver.

Orders will be filled in the succession they are received, President Darner said. They may be sent to Presidential Art Medals, Inc., 5024 Pepper Drive, Dayton, 24, Ohio.

Dealers may also address inquiries to this address, the executive said. Already a number of the leading numismatic suppliers over the nation have expressed enthusiasm at the high quality of the medal, Darner revealed, and have placed quantity orders for them.

NCW Documents Ready To Mail

Clubs and individuals who participated in the American Numismatic Association-sponsored National Coin Week are eligible to receive Certificates of Participation even if they did not enter national competition.

Dolly-Maude Harris, 1961 National Coin Week chairman, said today those who would like certificates may request them by writing to her at 401 West 26 Street, Austin, Texas.

May 25 was the deadline for mailing entries for competition to Tom McCrummen Jr., awards chairman. Carlton Brush, of Austin, served as vice chairman of the 1961 affair.

Ohio Dealer Victimized By Vandals

Coins valued at $40,000 to $50,000 were taken from the home of Elmer B. Ray, Lima, Ohio, coin dealer, Sunday, May 21, while he and his wife were attending the Marion coin, stamp and hobby show in Marion, Ohio.

The couple returned home, 1760 West Wayne Street, Lima, at 9:35 Sunday evening to everything in shambles.

The thieves had ripped the beds with scissors, shredded clothing, tore open coin wrappers and coin folders, and scattered the remains on the floor.

One safe was opened and a quantity of better grade coins was taken. The common coins were dumped onto the floor.

"It will take me a month to straighten this all out," said Ray. "We couldn't even sleep in the beds; we had to sleep on chairs in the front room."

Among the coins missing were: 9:35 Sunday evening to find every-rolls of Lincolns, including two 1922 cent rolls, a complete roll set of Jefferson nickels, a $25 box of small date 1960-D cents, $25 box of 1958 cents, 46 rolls of 1954 unc. cents, a $50 bag of 1954-S cents, and a black case containing some eight to nine town, Ohio, who championed the federal charter initially in the house of representatives in July, 1911.

Congressman Ashbrook was numismatically minded, and he diligently maintained a constant watch over the legislation until it was signed by President William Howard Taft May 9, 1912.

Now nearly 50 years later his congressman-son had the privilege of watching the charter renewal, along with his fellow Ohio congressman, William M. McCulloch (4th-Ohio). It was Congressman McCulloch who knew of the father-son interest and invited Ashbrook to witness the continuation of his father's work.

The senior Ashbrook gained a place of immortality in the A.N.A. annals by his action—he was elected to honorary life membership in the organization and was presented with a set of resolutions from a grateful group of numismatists.

Complete details of the efforts to gain a federal charter were contained in an address by Judson Brenner, A.N.A. president, as he spoke to the August, 1912, A.N.A. conclave assembled in Rochester, N. Y.

Brenner pointed out that after the bill was introduced in the House by Congressman Ashbrook, it met with considerable opposition, "mostly from those who did not understand its meaning."

Congressman A. W. Kopp, of Wisconsin, and Congressmen Wedemeyer, of Wisconsin, and Moore, of Pennsylvania, together with other friends in the house, debated and deliberated four hours before the bill was passed by the House, according to Brenner.

He continued:

"The bill was then carried to the United States Senate where it was referred to the committee on finance who referred it to the commissioner of the District of

Charter Interests Solons

American Numismatic Association president Admiral O. H. Dodson, USN (Ret.) of Detroit signs the A.N.A. Federal Charter May 15 as Congressman William M. McCulloch (4th-Ohio) right, and Congressman John M. Ashbrook (17th-Ohio) look on. The world's largest numismatic organization first received a federal charter in 1911 after Congressman William Ashbrook, father of the present representative from the same Ohio district, proposed legislation to authorize a charter for A.N.A.

Columbia . . . the commissioner apparently misunderstood the purport of the bill, thinking it carried with it a request for government assistance, and perhaps later on an appropriation, and declined to recommend it on the ground that the application for such a charter should be made under the incorporation laws for the District of Columbia.

"The same objection applied to a District of Columbia charter as would have applied to that of a state charter . . ." President Brenner pointed out.

"If a charter had been obtained from the District of Columbia or from a state it would have been objectionable for these reasons:

"It would have necessitated the maintenance of the principal office of the association within the District of Columbia, or, if in a state, the maintenance of an office within the state which granted the charter.

"We would not have had national recognition under such a charter which was desired and so outlined in detail in the bill," the A.N.A. president said.

Congressman Ashbrook immediately set in motion machinery to have the bill reconsidered, according to President Brenner's talk. He was aided by S. Hudson Chapman, of Philadelphia, who convinced the commissioner that the bill was worthy. It was passed by the senate April 23 and on May 9, 1912, it was signed by President Taft into law.

Sixty-second Congress of the United States of America

At the Second Session,

Began and held at the City of Washington on Monday, the fourth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

AN ACT

To incorporate the American Numismatic Association.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That H. O. Grandberg, of Oshkosh, Wisconsin; William A. Ashbrook, of Johnstown, Ohio; Henry Chapman, of Philadelphia; J. M. Henderson, of Columbus, Ohio; Howard Wood, Brookline, Massachusetts; together with such persons as they may associate with themselves, and their successors, be, and they hereby are, constituted a body corporate of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 2. That the name of such body corporate shall be "American Numismatic Association" and by that name it shall have succession of fifty years, save as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. That the objects of the said corporation shall be to advance the knowledge of numismatics along educational, historical, and scientific lines in all its various branches; to assist in bringing about better cooperation between all persons interested in the coinage, circulation, classification, collection, sale, exhibition, use, and preservation of all coins, bills, and medals; to acquire and disseminate trustworthy information bearing upon these topics; to promote greater popular interest in the science of numismatology, and for the particular purpose of bringing the numismatists of America into closer relations with one another, and of promoting friendly feeling for one another through social intercourse, the interchange of ideas and discussions of mutual interest; to acquire, own, hold, and dispose of such personal property and own real estate for its own use, as may be necessary to properly carry into effect the purposes herein set forth, and to perform all such other acts and things as may be necessary to the full carrying into effect the said purposes, but such purposes do not include operations for pecuniary profit.

SEC. 4. That the principal office of said association shall be in the District of Columbia, but the association through its representatives shall have power to establish and maintain such other offices throughout America as the business of the association may require.

SEC. 5. That the control of such corporation shall be vested in a board of five governors, to be elected by the members of such association. The incorporators hereof shall act as the board of governors for the first year and until others are chosen in their stead.

SEC. 6. That the board of governors shall have the power to make such prudential by-laws and regulations as they may deem proper for the management and control of the business and affairs of the association not inconsistent with this Act or the laws of the United States of America.

SEC. 7. That said association shall further have power to have and use a common seal and to alter and change the same at its pleasure; to sue and be sued in any court of the United States or other court of competent jurisdiction; to take or receive for the purposes of the association any gift, grant, or devise, and to accept and administer any trust for the purposes of the association.

SEC. 8. That this Act shall be subject to alteration, amendment, or repeal at the pleasure of the Congress of the United States.

SEC. 9. That this Act shall take effect immediately on its passage.

Chapman
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Wood
Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate.

Next A.N.A. President Visits In Sidney

He was A.N.A. representative from the Western Reserve Numismatic Society in Cleveland. He assisted in the organization of the Manatee Coin Club, Bradenton, Fla., and now is serving as its first president.

Oblisk was merit badge counselor on coin collecting for the Boy Scouts of America from 1939 to 1957. He assisted in the formation of a number of local and regional coin clubs.

He has been a guest speaker on numismatics at many civic-educational groups, the Lion's, Kiwanis clubs, church and school assemblies.

The Florida numismatist was born and reared in Akron, and he lived there until he moved to Florida four years ago. He is also interested in Indian relics and antique coins in addition to coins.

Brainard Out Of Board Race

The number of candidates for the American Numismatic Association's Board of Governors (six to be elected) has been reduced to 18—Karl Brainard of Los Angeles has withdrawn from the competition.

"I have decided to decline the nomination as I have three good friends from California who are running for the A. N. A. board now, and I feel their chances will be somewhat better if I withdraw," said Brainard.

He said, however, that he believed he would again seek the post in two years.

Oil City To Meet June 4

Beginners as well as advanced collectors are invited to attend the next meeting of the Oil Creek Coin Club of Oil City, Pa., slated for Sunday, June 4, at the VFW Home in Oil City, starting at 2 p.m.

At the last meeting, five new members were accepted into the club. An informal discussion on the grading and pricing of coins was conducted by Edward J. Stralko.

Joseph Gill Jr. of Bladedell, N. Y. was a special guest and displayed a collection of U. S. coins, among which was a complete set of uncirculated Indian cents.

Prizes were presented to Mrs. Clarence Frank, Bob Connell and Mary Lou Reid.

Anyone desiring information on joining the club may call the president, Edward Stralko, C. 7-8071.

Russia To Strike New Medal

New Russian medal for USSR Pilot-Cosmonaut.

Presidium of Russia's Supreme Soviet has issued a decree authorizing a medal to go with the new title of "USSR Pilot-Cosmonaut."

First recipient of the medal presumably will be Yuri Gagarin, the Soviet major who made the first space flight in April. The medal will also be awarded to Soviet "pilot-cosmonauts" who will make outstanding space flights in the future.

The five sided silver medal is 25 millimeters wide and 23.8 millimeters high. Design in the medal's center is an enamel globe with the territory of the USSR appearing in red. The globe is girdled in gold by the path of an earth satellite in orbit. A second golden orbit shows the trail of a cosmic ship heading for interplanetary space from a star on the globe representing the location of Moscow.

At the top of a medal, embossed in gold, are the words "Pilot" and "Cosmonaut." Below, under the globe, are the letters SSSR (USSR) embossed in gold. Gold laurel branches are embossed on each side of the letters.

Reverse side of the chest medal carries the inscription: "Established by decree of the Presidium of the USSR Supreme Soviet, April 14, 1961," and the number of the medal. The Gagarin flight took place on April 12.

Red Counterfeiters Face Death

Russia has authorized the death penalty for counterfeiters.

A decree issued by the presidium of the USSR's Supreme Soviet provides that persons who counterfeit coins or currency for the purpose of distribution may be sent before a firing squad. Persons who do not actually engage in counterfeiting but who pass spurious money "as a business" are also subject to capital punishment under the decree.

The new Russian law puts counterfeiters in the category of "especially dangerous criminals." This group includes traitors, spies, anti-government plotters, terrorists, bandits, prison troublemakers, persons who commit premeditated murder, and people who steal or embezzle state property on a large scale.

Under the law, the only counterfeiters who can be sure of not receiving the death penalty are those less than 18 years old at the time of the crime and women who are pregnant when the crime is committed or when the sentence is handed down by the court.

In explaining why the latest decree was necessary, Soviet Attorney-General R. Rudenko complained that in a number of places the police, prosecutors and courts were being too easy on criminals. He said that tolerance of crime should not be confused with "socialist (Communist) humanism." Until the new decree, counterfeiting was not believed to be a matter of serious concern to the Soviet government. Russian propagandists have stated repeatedly that crime of all types is rare in the USSR as compared with capitalist countries.

One of the very few reports on counterfeiting in the Soviet Union appeared in the Moscow newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya this spring. The article was reprinted in the May 4, 1961, issue of Coin World.

The decree authorizing the death sentence for counterfeiters was dated the following day—May 5.

Note Size Concession To Sightless Britons

A new 10-shilling note is due to appear this year in England.

Originally it was intended to issue the notes in the same size as the pound note which has now taken on the approximate dimensions of the U. S. dollar. However, it is understood, the new 10-shilling will not be the same size in deference to the wishes of the blind who handle currency.

Jamaica Has New Currency

Jamaica has issued a new series of paper money with the portrait of George VI retained on three of four new releases, Dwight Musser reports in the current World Paper Money Journal.

The five shilling, 10 shilling and one pound are similar to previous issues on the front, but the reverses are of a new design. There are differences in color and a slight difference in size.

Five pound note bears a likeness of Queen Elizabeth. It is of a more modern design in contrast with the other denominations which retain not only the former monarch but also the older, traditional styling on the front side.

The latter are actually a sort of "hybrid" having an old style obverse and a relatively modern design on the reverse, according to the Bulletin.

thousand dollars worth of rolls. Also included were $600 in early Liberty seated half dollars, $850 in Barber halves, $700 in Barber quarters, and $700 in Barber dimes.

"I'm sick, my whole life savings, gone!" said Ray.

Police speculated that it took four hours to loot the home and scatter the debris. They said no fingerprints were found on the safe. Ripping of bedding and clothes appeared to be an attempt to make the burglary look like vandalism, police said.

Ray estimated that the missing coins weighed 800 to 900 pounds. Burglars left the common coins, he said, because they couldn't carry them all.

son restaurant outside of Wilmington, Del., on the New Jersey turnpike. When they returned to their car, two suitcases containing the coins and two suitcases filled with clothes were missing.

Police speculate the thieves followed the Kaplans from Washington, and waited for an opportunity to take the coins.

Kaplan, who has been a coin dealer for 25 years, was returning to his home in Valley Stream, Long Island, at the time of the theft. His business is located at 550 Fifth Avenue, New York.

"I'm very happy," said Kaplan on news of Ward's arrest. "I hope they put him out of circulation so he won't do this to anyone else."

Ward faces a maximum sentence of 10 years and a $10,000 fine for the robbery.

The Professional Numismatists Guild offered a $10,000 reward last fall for information leading to the arrest of the Kaplan robber.

Civil War Medal On Sale

The official Civil War Centennial medal is now available in both bronze and silver in coin departments of department stores, hobby and coin shops, Robert Friedberg, president of Coin and Currency Institute, New York, sole distributor of the medal, reminded today.

The bronze medals are $4; the silver medals—25,000 of them—are serially numbered and sell at $30. The medal is two and one half inches in size, and is issued under the authority of the Civil War Centennial Commission.

On one side of the medal are portraits of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant and Robert E. Lee with the quotations, "Let us have peace" and "consciousness of duty faithfully performed."

Reverse side of the medal contains the seal of the Civil War Centennial Commission.

An Open Letter To Coin Crooks

Dear Sir:

If you have been thinking about stealing someone's coin collection, think real hard before you do.

First of all, you can't get by with it. You will be tracked down, you will be caught, you will go to jail, you will spend the rest of your life regretting it.

Second, you will be breaking some collector's heart, just as you are breaking the law. But I guess you don't care about that. You don't care that someone put a lot of time and a lot of effort into his coin collection.

All you care about is the face value or that you can dump the collection off on some fence, who will only pay you ten to thirty percent of its real value.

That collection means a lot more to a collector than the money he has invested in it. To him it means things of beauty; it means things of rarity; it means pleasure. But I guess you don't care about that, either.

Look at your buddies. They thought they were smart too. But they end up in jail every time.

The recent apprehension of Neil J. Ward, who is accused of taking part in the Max Kaplan theft last October, is a good example. But he didn't get by with it. If you steal more than $5,000 worth of coins and go across a state line, you will have the FBI on your trail.

Stealing a coin collection is not easy money. You will pay a far higher price for it in years of imprisonment and in fines.

Collectors are making it tougher for you to steal their coins. They are putting more of their coins in safe deposit boxes; they are buying more insurance; they are not leaving their coins in unattended cars; they are marking their holders.

I don't suppose you would like to read over my shoulder at some of my mail. Here is a typical letter:

"Dick: It is very hard for me to write this short sad note . . . Just before your letter, my entire collection of stamps and coins valued at approximately $11,000 was stolen. As much as my collection meant to me, I am just heartsick."

I don't suppose you understand the human emotions of a collector when you take something very dear away from him.

I don't suppose the threat of jail or fines will have much effect on you.

But let me say this, if you keep it up, you are going to raise the wrath of collectors to such an extent that no expense will be spared to track you down and deal the most severe penalty possible to you.

If you're smart, you'll think twice before stealing someone's collection. You just can't get by with it!

Sincerely, Dick Johnson.

No Summer Slump

Years ago coin collecting was an indoor, wintertime activity. Recently it has taken on all year round, no summer slump, proportions.

This is exemplified by the increasing number of summertime conventions, by the number of clubs holding meetings the year-round, and by the number of advertisements we are receiving for the coming months.

Probably no greater factor has contributed to this than air conditioning. People spend as much time with their coin collections in the summer time now as they do in the winter time.

And too, no greater maxim holds true: if a collector wants a coin, or sees a bargain for sale, it doesn't matter what time of the year it is. He is going to buy that coin!

Letters To The Editor

I believe coin collectors are a little too harsh with their criticism about Mr. Johnson's suit with the bank. Mr. Johnson is certainly entitled to his day in court.

I am sure that he will be the first to tell you that he will abide with the decision of the court. I had a little misfortune in World War II and became 100 per cent disabled as a result of service and I am proud to make this minor sacrifice along with thousands of others to assure that we can maintain the right to have our say in the judicial processes of our beloved country. He will probably lose his suit, but he will have exercised his basic right to be heard by the court.

Coin World is a delightful paper and is to be praised for its fine coverage of the whole field of coin collecting. I like the way Coin World allows dealers to criticize processed cents in order to sell their unprocessed steel cents. We all can see if a person has to criticize another coin to sell the one advertised, that the advertised coin can't stand on its own merits.

The processed steel cent is becoming difficult to obtain and certainly it is an unique coin which deserves a great deal of thought and attention. My ads appearing in Coin World convince me that most collectors are not being caught short, relative to the processed steel cent.

My fourth ad on steel cents will appear in this issue of Coin World and I probably will continue to see my fellow American exercising the right to criticize and I will read each criticism with care, fill my customer's orders, and cry all the way to the bank.
1st Lt. J. P. Fitzgerald
Austin, Texas

I believe enough free publicity has been given the "Fred Johnson Story" and it is certainly refreshing to know that a vigilante committee exists among coin collectors and dealers that make issues of situations just as this one. This is by all means a healthy circumstance.

I do believe, however, that the suggestion of "boycotting" the Coin World and their advertisers as has been suggested, is more childish and assinine than the "man-in-space" prices asked for the 1960 small date cents.

Having spent 25 years in the composition of all types of advertising including newspaper, radio and little T.V. I find it impossible to condemn a responsible paper such as this one, for permitting one individual to advertise.

After all, I have studied the ads and, although many prices don't coincide with my opinions, it is not the advertisers' fault nor that of the Coin World if one can't read or understand what is printed large bold type; competition always wins out.

It is not the desire of the writer of this letter to enter into undo controversy nor defend the actions of people or parties absolutely unknown to him. The writer does, however, wish to remind some misinformed individuals that under our great form of government that laws are made for everyone. Regardless of one's station-in-life, justice can be sought thru proper channels and courts. Mr. Johnson obviously feels his cause is just and wants to exercise his American heritage. By whose decree does it become a disgrace to sue someone?

Infamy in any cloak is distasteful, but to suggest boycotting this newspaper and all its advertisers is a poor attempt to agitate or become a rabble rouser. Anyone 3x7 should be able to think a little straighter than that. Furthermore if you feel all the advertisers herein (they are the ones that really pay for your newspaper, not your measly $3 per year) are dishonest or unreliable, I am certain the editors of this paper will be glad to put the number 60 opposite your name on the front page.

If you are not yet of age, then I suggest you keep a better eye on your comic books. It's simple arithmetic, one Johnson wants to sue somebody, the other Johnson just wants to edit a good newspaper.

I frankly believe the real offenders are listed so many times in the want-ads. I never fail to get a real laugh every week when I read some of the outlandish trades offered, some people are still looking for Mr. Barnum's protegee. If I had the audacity to ask a boycott for some of the horse-play I've received from a few of the advertisers, as some of the "do-gooders" suggest, I'm afraid I'd have to forfeit my kite, two frogs, my outdated hoola hoop and 2 "John McGraw" baseball trading cards.

Ervin R. Snyder
Crown Point, Ind.

In your April 27 issue of Coin World I had an ad on a 1883/82 nickel with a picture of it. In my own mind it is an 1883/82 but according to your issue of May 18 on Page 3 Mr. Breen states this is not an overdate.

I have just sold it to Bill Anderson, Hicksville, L. I., New York, for $33.60. This was high bid. (I had three other bids.)

I am going to return his check and tell him that it is up to him which he wants—the coin or check. I do not want to have my name connected to a bad deal. (Some of your advertisers don't seem to let this bother them but I still think the customer is always right.)

The way it looks now your paper is the only one that made any money on the transaction. My ad cost me $24.44 which I was glad to pay even though Mr. Breen and Mr. Johnson gave it a real going over. I think my $24.44 gave a lot of coin collectors the truth on this coin as professionals see it. I feel some of your advertisers will never be able to say this with the junk they advertise.

If you feel my handling of this mail bid ad was right, I would appreciate it if you could write a small article to keep my name in good standing with your 58,917 subscribers.

C. A. Pherson
Fargo, N. D.

I would like to take a poke at your Coin Trends. This feature of your newspaper can be a very helpful guide, but it is not always completely accurate.

Take speculative items like the small date proof set. When the prices rises up goes the Coin Trend values with it. But when the price drops Coin Trends seem to drag quite a bit behind.

Also many items are being advertised as much as 10 per cent or better below the minimum in your ranges and in your own newspaper, too.

A second thing is the prices on your classified ads. A man with only 10 or so dollars worth of coins to trade cannot afford to put an ad in your "for trade" section unless he can make 20 per cent or better profit on his coins and thereby break even. And the trend toward "profit making" ads is showing up very plainly.

One more thing. Et tu, Brute? Did you have to strike a medal?

Hoped not to say this after a year of fine publication but the heads are beginning to swell and the hat looks like it's getting tighter. When a deal or contract is made at a price I don't believe you would appreciate it if I decided to change my mind. Had an ad for three weeks at price quoted of $2 but only received two weeks because prices went up. Sorry to see you turning like the dealers—one price, then you try to buy, suddenly they're all out. Following week prices go up and suddenly by magic there are more as in the case of the 1960-P small dates. The hobby has lost its way, I'm sorry to say.

WE PROUDLY ANNOUNCE

The Presidential Art Medal Series

THIS PROGRAM is dedicated to offering a series of finely sculptured, extremely high quality Presidential medals. The first medal of President John F. Kennedy will be followed by one of Abraham Lincoln. This is a continuing program and three or four medals a year will be struck until the series is complete. New medals will be struck thereafter as Presidents are inaugurated. This exclusive offering will be a treasured possession whether you desire only one, or the entire series.

MEDALLIC ART COMPANY, the only American organization devoted exclusively to sculptured bas-relief will strike the entire Presidential series.

MR. RALPH MENCONI was commissioned as the designer and sculptor of this first in a series medal. Mr. Menconi was selected on the basis of his recognized skill in full portrait and high relief work. More information on his work is offered in a leaflet supplied with each medal.

THE MEDAL'S SIZE is slightly larger than a half dollar and 1/3 thicker to provide correct balance. This medal is the ideal size for display in an album, which will be offered at a later date.

LIMITED PRODUCTION of the precious medals, the high quality found exclusively in Medallie Art Company's work, and the practical size of this medal assure its increasing value. Production of these medals will be strictly limited to the quantities listed below.

DEALER INQUIRIES are invited.

The John F. Kennedy Medal is offered as follows:

Platinum (Pure)	10 pieces.....	$500.00 ea.

Schulman Reports

Counterfeits, Restrikes International Occurrence

By Hans M. F. Schulman

Last week I explained in detail differences between restrikes, unofficial striking and government issues. To continue this discussion, I am presenting a list of pieces here which are either counterfeits or restrikes. Much of my information has been taken from Hans Schulman the "Numismatisches Nachrichtenblatt".

Poland: The rare 20 and 10 Zloty 1925 have been restruck by the Warsaw mint and are now available at lower prices for the trade than before. They are struck by the government.

The Peruvian coins of 100, 50, 20, 10 and five Soles from 1950 till today are not restrikes as has been mentioned in different magazines. They are official government issues and can be bought banks. I consider these coins in the full sense of the word, although importation of these coins is not permitted into the U.S.A. The reason for the government's decision is that they are considered bullion.

Several 20 and 10 francs of Switzerland have been restruck, but only those after 1935, although some of the other years have been counterfeited by the famous counterfeiters who did so well with their sovereigns and napoleons. They are difficult to separate from the government restrikes and likely circulate side by side.

There are, however, some counterfeits of the 1925 100 francs in circulation and although they are not too difficult to notice, it is suggested not to buy a 100 franc 1925 from any other source than a reputable dealer or bank. There are two or three different counterfeits made of this coin.

The modern issues of 20, 10 and five Kroher of Sweden are most likely restruck lately by the government and are still quite expensive and not available in large quantities. Caution is suggested until we know more.

The 100 lei (also called 20 Lei erroneously) 1944 of Rumania was struck in 1950 and can be called a restrike although the coin is struck by the issuing authority.

We have been advised that there are counterfeits of the 15, 10, seven and one-half and five Roubel of Nicolas II of Russia, but we doubt this information at this moment. Several bags were saved at the time of the revolution and the owners have just recently sold the contents in Switzerland. This brought new pieces upon the market and gave thought that counterfeits are made. This is not the case.

The Syrian one and one-half pounds, 1950, and the Saudi Arabian 1951 pound have been struck in such quantities that again the remark of "restrikes" have been made. Our information at present is such that this is not the case.

We object to the statement of the modern coins of Turkey are restruck or counterfeited. None of the Turkish coins have been struck upon any other order than the Turkish government and issued only in the year mentioned on the dates.

Some years have been struck in large quantities and because of the difference in the legal and the black market rate of the Turkish Lire, some numismatists in Europe have thought the Turkish coins to be restrikes. I inspected this matter in Istanbul last summer and can state nothing is farther from the truth.

I am not referring to U.S.A.

counterfeits in this article. We all are familiar with these.

Uruguay 5 pesos, 1930, has been counterfeited, not restruck. Weight and color do not conform to the genuine issue. Caution.

One hundred bolivares 1887 of Venezuela has been counterfeited by the same people who made the sovereigns and the napoleons. They are easily noticeable by their superb condition and yellow gold color.

Tunis late 100 franc pieces have been restruck but not in large quantities.

Correction: To my great enjoyment I can state today that Dr. Emrick in Harrisburg is in good health and happy. I noticed his passing away in one of the numismatic magazines and mentioned it in my column. Happy to acknowledge my error, and happy it was an error.

Congratulations to Dr. Herbert Cahn, the dynamic secretary (for 10 years) of the I.A.P.N. in Basel, Switzerland, upon the birth of his son, Jean David. We can rejoice with this happy news for one of the greatest numismatists of present day. We hear that Jean David is fed coins instead of milk.

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED: The magnificent catalogue of Ars Antiqua (the art department of Bank Leu in Zurich and Rosenberg in Lucerne) for their auction April 29th. It has 57 pages of text and 57 magnificent plates, one colored, all in folio with heavy cover and a delight for the mind and the eyes. Leu and Rosenbergs catalogues are always for numismatists a treat and their art catalogues are the same. Much of the credit goes to Dr. Leo Mildenberg who visited New York recently to make his beautiful catalogue even more known.

Fixed price list 611 was received from Henry Christensen with Greek, English and other coins. You can write to P. O. Box 1732 in Madison, N. J., to get a copy.

When this column is published the Metropolitan convention is probably a thing of the past and Stack's Egolf sale will have rung up top prices. The catalogue is in the usual Stack's style; neat.

Guard Against Sharp Practices

By Jim Kelly

333 West First St., Dayton 2, Ohio

Coin collectors and dealers, for the most part, are one of the most honest and sincere groups of individuals that we know of. As a matter of fact, because of their high integrity, they have confidence in others and consequently are easily duped when doing business with some of the few shysters who have found their way into the coin business. Several tricks used by these sharpies were brought to our attention recently while attending the Penn-Ohio and Wisconsin coin convention.

Jim Kelly

One of the most common practices of particular interest to readers of this column is selling uncirculated rolls which actually have a few brilliant specimens on the ends, with those in the center quite often badly tarnished and in many instances, circulated.

There are other variations, all meant to fool and cheat the buyer.

We bring this to your attention as we feel that collectors and dealers alike should examine each and every roll of coins at the time of purchase. The person from whom you buy the coins may be perfectly honest and sincere but the party from whom he purchased them may not have been so conscientious.

Even if all persons concerned were sincere, there is still the possibility that circulated coins could have been mixed with the uncirculated when put in rolls at the bank or Federal Reserve.

Bank-wrapped, or what appears to be bank-wrapped, is still no guarantee that the entire roll is the same as the end coins. So, for your own protection, whether buying or selling, we suggest you examine all rolls and even bags of coins which you purchase.

By doing this you will also discourage and put out of business the few who are trying to make a racket out of a legitimate business.

technically perfect and numismatically tops.

Boutin (Paris) list No. 141, (mimeographed) April, 1961, just received. Seaby's bulletin No. 515, April issue, has four plates and, as usual, many interesting coins.

Art and auctions, volume 5, No. 99 of March 31, 1961, just received from Holland (in the English language), has reports on prices of auctions and report the dates of new auctions in all fields of art, including coins.

This fortnightly publication, heavily illustrated, is a marvelous guide for those who want to know what prices are obtained in Europe for coins, paintings, porcelain, furniture, carpets, etc. ($6 per six months).

Schiltz Melis (Antwerp, Belgium) list 6 for minor coins received. Report on meetings in the bulletin of the French Numismatic Association, 16th year, No. 3, monthly, March, 1961, is always interesting because their meetings have a very high numismatic level because of their president, Jean Lafaurie, one of the greatest living numismatists.

French's catalogue for the Albany Numismatic Society being host to the Empire State Numismatic Association contains few foreign coins but Leo Young's marvellous catalogue for the Central States Convention in Minneapolis contains quite a few foreign items, although the accent is on U. S.

F. Knobloch's list No. 21 of ancient Greek coins always is on a high numismatic level. Fred's knowledge of the ancients is extraordinary. Santamaria's new publication, NUMISMATICA, first year No. 2, contains interesting articles in Italian, many advertisements, bibliography of new publications and reports on Italian numismatic clubs.

Livio Santamaria, the youngest member of the Santamaria family in the business, has an article about an unknown coin of Marie Louise of Parma. Livio is going to be the future standardbearer of the famous old numismatic house and I know that he will be one of the greatest numismatists of the future. He has done a lot of excellent cataloguing already.

Coin Galleries mail bid sale of April 20, brought high prices. The catalogue was so well written by Dr. Weyr and Jim Risk that Stack's can be proud of their foreign department turning out such an excellent catalogue.

Dr. Weyr is at present touring Europe for the firm and he may meet up with Harvey Hoffer who just left to purchase ancients for Kay Coin Service, leaving poor Bill Selfridge to fight the crowds alone. Harvey is going to vacation in Greece; could not pick a better place.

A new booklet received, well written by J. Hunt Deacon and K. Irons is called "Australian Commonwealth Coinage", 1910-1960. It has 23 pages, fully illustrated and is published by the Numismatic Society of South Australia.

The Wurttemberg Bank in Stuttgart sends us a list of common gold offered for sale with prices higher than ever: U.S. 20 dollar, 175 German marks; 10 dollar, 89.50 DM and 5 dollar 5.50 DM.

A list of English books on decorations and medals and on the English military has been sent to OMSA members by a Kansas City house which has been so intelligent to not put their name on the list. If you throw the wrapper away like I did, you do not know where to order the items. If this firm reads this column a kind letter would be appreciated.

The Australian Numismatist, or-

Token Sketch

Mrs. Herbert Buchanan, of Palestine, Ill., designed the Palestine Sesquicentennial sketch which was used on 50 cent commemorative tokens good until September 2 as legal tender in that city. The tokens, of a half dollar size in gold bronze are available at Greene's News Stand in plastic holders.

gan of the Numismatic Association of Victoria, sends us their last issue; always interesting from an Australian point of numismatics.

I always like Prof. di Nicol's list from Rome which included a very interesting fixed price list for March, 1961. Write the nice professor for a copy at 65 Via del Babuino in Rome and the collector of foreign coins will have a treat. Ancient coins, Italian coins and gold are also listed.

Ludwig Grabow's list from West Berlin is strong in Schwalbach talers. The Dorotheum in Vienna has part 13 of the Hollschek collection and Greek coins from Spain to Sicily. Sale was April 26 and 27.

Ars and Nummus sent their list March, 1961, from Milan, and the Austrian Numismatic Society's bulletin has always some interesting articles to read.

The American Numismatic Society's bulletin No. 55, April, 1961, with numismatic literature is a marvellous guide on all publications of numismatics and the only one in the world which seems complete.

The library staff of the A.N.S. works day and night to make these book publications the finest in the world.

"Numismatisches Nachrichtenblatt" from Hamburg year 10 no. 4 deals mainly with reports on German coin meetings.

Gerhard Hirsch's sale for May 17, 18 and 19, just received. The heavily illustrated catalogue with 96 pages of text and 16 pages of photographs is a dorado for the collector of foreign coins. Ask for copy at Promenadeplatz 10, Munich.

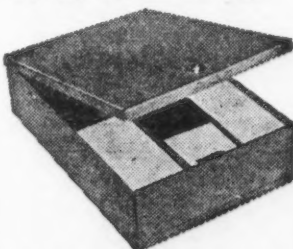

Sale No. 104 of Frankfurter Muenzhandlung (Mrs. Button) is another attractive sale. Address: Freiherr von Steinstrasse 9 in Frankfurt am Main, Germany.

Alexander Deified

Following his death, deified portraits of Alexander were used on the coins of Lysimachus in Thrace and the early coins of Ptolemy I of Egypt.

A Weekly Report To Our Readers

Statistics And Interesting
Information from your COIN
WORLD Circulation Dept.

CECIL WATKINS

Another Move To Improve Service

Starting with the May 25th issue of COIN WORLD, your copy has been leaving the Sidney Post Office each week one day earlier than in the past. This is being done to speed delivery to our more than 60,000 subscribers.

It was not an easy task to move up the mailing date but it was accomplished by running our mailing department an extra shift at night.

With one hundred percent co-operation from Postmaster William B. Swonger and his staff at the Sidney post office, we were able to speed your COIN WORLD to you as planned.

To give you some idea as to the size of your publication, we have compiled some figures that might interest you.

This week's issue of 64 pages and with a distribution of 67,000 copies weighs 33,500 pounds or more than 16 tons. If we were to stretch out the papers, laying each page side by side, we would have a ribbon of paper 18 inches wide and 2,144,000 feet long or a distance of 387 miles.

More than 1,000 U.S. mail sacks were required to speed the issue on its way to you readers. Pictured here are scenes showing our mailing room in action and special activity at the Sidney post office.

Check For Correct Post Office

If you are planning or have just moved to a new sub-division, be sure to check and find out if there has been a change in the post office serving your new address.

Recently we have received many changes of addresses giving the name of the sub-division as the post office but we find that the name only applies to the sub-division and there is no post office branch there. The original post office still services the new community.

As a result the copies of Coin World are returned to us marked "no such post office in state named", and we have a disappointed subscriber until we can get the situation straightened out.

Numismatically yours,

Cecil Watkins

Coin World To Be Mailed One Day Earlier

There's good news for Coin World subscribers! Effective with the issue of May 25, copies of the world's only weekly newspaper in the numismatic field will leave the Sidney, Ohio, Post Office a day earlier. A section of the Coin World mailing room here shows typical operations that send the publication straight from the presses to the Post Office.

Sidney, Ohio, Post Office officials see to it that neither sleet nor rain nor slow-downs delay the departure of Coin World each week. Postmaster William B. Swonger, seated, and Assistant Postmaster Griffis Jenkins, right, are checking new routings to speed Coin World with Circulation Director Cecil Watkins.

Mail sacks containing the first of more than 65,000 Coin Worlds, bound for 50 states, Canada, Mexico and a score of foreign countries are stacked, awaiting a semi-truck at the Sidney Post Office. Postmaster Swonger consults a member of the Post Office staff. Visitors marvel at the rapid processing of Coin World which has now become the biggest mail customer in Sidney.

Hans Schulman's Atomic Sale Blasts Off June 20

Collectors from all over the United States and foreign countries will assemble or be represented by their agents in New York June 20-23 when the Hans Schulman "atomic" sale will "blast off" at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

A total of 3,200 lots of rare coins from the "atomic" collection will be offered at the sale.

Only a few months ago Schulman and Abner Kreisberg sold their largest auction collection for a capacity audience and here again is a catalogue presenting in its 152 pages with 15 illustrated plates material that will appeal to all collectors.

Coins of great value are together with the medium and low priced material, gold, silver and copper, foreign and U.S., ancient and modern, medals decorations, old and new books, sets, patterns ... there isn't a series which is not represented in the "atomic" collection.

The atomic sale includes, among others, Colonel Curtis' famous Roman colonial coins expertly described by him and also a collection formed in Austria of Austrian Hungarian and Transylvanian gold. It includes a Polish consignment of rare Polish silver and Canadian silver dollars from across the border.

Some of the sessions start as early as 7:30 p.m. but there is an hour intermission for dinner. Donald D'Amato is the auctioneer but he will be alternated this time by Cataloguer Schulman.

The auction starts at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday night, June 20, with rare Roman aurei and then continues till 10:30 p.m. with 1050 gold coins of the world, including many modern brilliant proof issues, some unique pieces. Several foreign gold coins are expected to bring a thousand dollars each and new records are expected to be set.

The second session on Wednesday, June 21, starts at 7 p.m. It is a short session dealing only with ancient coins and with medals (including medals of Philip II and his predecessor, Charles V) and ending with coin books of the 17th and 18th century.

Pennsylvanians Plan Birthday

Preliminary plans for the club's first birthday anniversary next October were expected to be discussed at the June meeting of the Anthracite Coin Club of Hazleton, Pa., set for Thursday, June 1, at the Eagles' Clubhouse in Hazleton.

Harry Berge has been named chairman of a coin show and exhibit to celebrate the anniversary. With him on the committee are George Andrasi, Donald Kromis, George Somers and Joseph Lechman.

At the last meeting, it was announced that the Anthracite club had joined the Pennsylvania Numismatic Associates, a group of clubs of Northeast Pennsylvania plus the Triple Cities Coin Club of Johnson City, N. Y., which have combined to hold an annual coin show. Mrs. Harry Berge, secretary of the club, was appointed representative to the P.N.A.

drachmas of Roman Egypt are followed by Judaica and coins of Bible days and finished with a group of Roman Republican and Roman Imperial coins.

Thursday the sale starts early again with the U.S. coins, silver, copper and gold. All the American coins will be sold between 5:30 and 7:30 o'clock on Thursday night and after the intermission at 8:30 p.m. the sale will continue with the atomic crowns, over a thousand lots, particularly strong in Germany, Mexico, Poland. These crowns are sold till lot 2675 (end of German crowns).

On the last auction day Friday, June 23, the auctioneer will sell the balance which includes Canada. That session starts with crowns of Hungary. Also included are large unpicked wholesale lots of foreign coins in unusual nice condition and old scales used for weighing coins in the old days of the American Colonies.

Catalogues are available from Hans M. F. Schulman at his office at 545 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Numismatists who want to stay on his mailing list are asked to send $2 subscription which entitles them to the prices realized of the Atomic sale and all catalogues for one year.

New Club Organized

A new coin club was organized recently for the Williamson, W. Va., area, at a meeting held at the Moose Home in Williamson. Lester F. Carr, Sr., was in charge of the session.

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted H. Hammer

How does one recognize the difference between a token and a coin? This difference at times is rather small but in most instances it is clear. In England the collecting of tokens is big field, with these items dating back to the early 15th century. Seaby's "Catalogue of Copper Coins and Tokens of the British Isles" states that some 15,000 tokens are known from the 17th century alone. It is likely that even more types or varieties were minted in the following century. And you may add to these, the possible 15,000 or 20,000 of the 19th century and United States tokens plus those of Canada.

Ted Hammer

But to get back to the question from the reader who wrote from Cincinnati—a token is a pledge of value. It is a piece of metal—or wood or leather—with a face value above its intrinsic value. It may be a piece of metal issued for use as money. Our own minor coins were legally known as token money.

Queen Elizabeth permitted municipal tokens to be struck in Bristol, Oxford and Worcester early in the 15th century. Tokens appeared in quantities during three periods of English history: From about 1601 until prohibited by royal decree Aug. 16, 1672, when a regal issue of copper half pennies and farthings appeared; from 1787 until 1802 when the copper coinage was insufficient to meet needs; a third and final series appeared in 1811 and continued until 1817 when an act was passed prohibiting their manufacture and use.

Early American tokens include that of William and John Mott, New York City, 1789. The Motts were importers and dealers in silver, located at 240 Water Street, a fashionable section of the city. These certainly were the first tradesmen tokens of the new nation. The tokens were minted in England and passed as cents in this country.

A token may be issued by a business house or an individual; it might be issued by a municipality or transportation company. Years ago stores would give tokens reading "good for five cents in trade at Blank Grocery." When the creamery or miller down the street accepted one of these tokens in trade, or gave one in change, the token served as money.

Many such tokens were issued in the 1830s and early 1840s by tradesmen and as political tokens in the National Bank fight. Some were called Jackson cents. Again, during the first four years of the Civil War, tokens—many bearing names of the firms minting them—"passed current" for coins, filling a great need during the acute shortage of small coins.

Vitello New Tampa Leader

Frank Vitello, first vice president of the Tampa, Fla., Coin Club, has been elected president for 1961-62, succeeding Earl T. Myers, according to a report from the club.

Chosen first vice president was John Hall, while Robert Thompson was elected second vice president, replacing Dr. Ben Beacham who was elected to the board of directors for a 3-year term and appointed its chairman.

Kenneth Sniffin was elected secretary, succeeding Rosemary H. Salem, and Henry Cox Jr. was re-elected treasurer. Other board members are Otto Powers, one-year term, and Oscar Finman, two-year term.

The Tampa club has slated its next meeting for Thursday, June 8, to be held in the Conference Room of the First National Bank building in Tampa, starting at 7:30 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

Jackson Head Of Albuquerque

New officers of the Albuquerque, N. M., Coin Club were to conduct their first full meeting at the next session, scheduled for Monday, May 29, in the Community room of the downtown Bank of New Mexico.

Chosen as president for 1961-62 was R. C. Jackson. Others include Louis W. Jamme, vice president; Mrs. Gale W. Hughes, secretary, and Claude Nicholson, treasurer.

SLADE'S SHOOTING WILD

SILVER DOLLAR BONANZA

Only when very large collections are offered at auction is such a nice selection of Bust Dollars made available. I originally had 8 specimens of 1795 $1.00, but only 3 remain.

BUST DOLLARS

1795-1 (flowing hair) nearly VF, but has a couple of hairline scratches, obverse which could be buffed off. No nicks or other damage. A good solid fine $82.50
1795-1 AU obverse, very choice. Reverse shows some rim damage, otherwise it would be a $295.00 coin. You'll never be sorry you bought this one. $172.50
1795-1 (flowing hair) I'd like to call it AU, but I guess it's only EF+. An absolutely perfect specimen. Very deeply struck, perfectly centered, and not a mark on it. Only an uncirculated coin could surpass it. Ideal for your type collection $210.00
1796 Another small eagle reverse. The obverse is a very nice VF, while the reverse is lightly nicked. A tough type coin $79.50

MY PRIDE AND JOY

1797 Dollar (9x7), a magnificent AU, deeply struck, perfectly centered, and with FULL MINT LUSTER. There are probably only a handful of such coins in the world today. I bought the coin about a month ago, and everywhere I've gone, it's been: "Look what I've got!" You can brag too far. $375.00

BU SETS

In my previous ad I stated that I had roll sets of BU 1c, 5c, 10c, 50c. I've sold out a complete roll set of cents and one of dimes, as well as nearly a set of halves and another of nickels. Now, I have another roll set of cents ready, and the dimes are almost ready. I expect to deliver to everyone. Dealers have been my best customers so far, as my prices seem to leave room for them to make a profit.

BU LINCOLN CENTS

1934-1961-PDS complete, no small dates $27.95
1935-1961-PDS complete, no small dates $23.25

1960-P,D small date cents, BU $2.95 extra

NOTE: In assembling these sets, I select the best BU rolls I can obtain, then cull them about 5% to remove spotted or badly discolored coins. I may miss one occasionally, but not very often.

BU JEFFERSON SETS
1938-1960-PDS complete $84.50

This is a coin which has got to rise again. Over three quarters of all ads I read asked $90.00 to $109.50. Rolls of 1939-D-S and 1942-D BU are practically non-existent.

MERCURY DIMES

I've picked up a handful of sets, complete except for the 1916-D, $20.95 and all are average or better. Best sets shipped first, each for

BU ROOSEVELT SETS
1946-1960-PDS complete $32.35

This is a tremendous buy. Did you know that Red Book for this set is $59.55? This makes my price very close to wholesale roll price. In addition, you get a COMPLETE set of coins from the very first year at a price close to your pocketbook. Just compare this with buying a BU set of Mercury dimes in about 1930 for $32.50. After 15 years, you get about the same number of BU coins.

BU FRANKLIN HALVES
1948-1960-PDS complete $49.25

With only 20 sets on hand, I don't have to push these very hard at THIS price. However, I am going to select choice sets from these rolls, and offer them as the best I have, at $57.50 each. The same argument applies as above; a complete set, at a reasonable price, with plenty of room left for appreciation.

BU ROLLS BU

A convention is no place for a roll dealer under normal circumstances, but Pennsylvania was the exception! Everything was hot! It looks like we are starting into the best roll market ever! Since my last ad, I've picked up a very nice inventory of rolls, and expect to fill a higher percentage of orders than ever.

Those of you who have rolls to sell, please write or ship. I need all the material I can get. To date I've refused virtually nothing at all other than a few 1960-D small date cents.

Above all, if you have scarce dates for sale, call or write. I will even pay a premium for quality.

FOR A SQUARE DEAL ON ROUND MONEY!

CHARLES SLADE III

3209 TRADEWINDS

ORLANDO, FLA.

Dr. Leich Re-elected

Dr. Charles F. Leich was re-elected president of the Evansville, Ind., Coin Club as he turned his energies to the third Indiana Numismatic Association convention, held in Evansville at the Vendome Hotel May 19-21. He served as conclave chairman.

Besides the many duties of an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, Dr. Leich finds time to enlarge his collection of Confederate notes, gold coins of America and many related historical antiques.

Dr. Leich is widely known for his fine talks and exhibits concerning these hobbies.

Dr. Charles F. Leich

Officers to serve with him will be Bill Pukall as vice president; Sterling Harrison, treasurer; Bettye Klauss, secretary; Hugh Nicholas, sergeant at arms, and Ralph Lee, historian.

John Schroeder is a new member of the board of directors. New officers of the club will take their posts officially at the June meeting of the club.

First Roman Silver

The first silver coin struck in Rome was the denarius with the head of Roma personified as a woman wearing a winged helmet. On the reverse were two horsemen with stars over their heads.

Libraries Receive Book From Spadone

A gift copy of "Catalog of Modern Japanese, Korean and Manchukuo Coins" has been sent to the main public library of every state capital in the United States—all 50 of them—according to M/Sgt. John G. Spadone, author of the Oriental study.

The New Jersey numismatist-writer also announced plans to send gift copies to the libraries of every Air Force Base in the United States.

The black book with a fierce golden dragon head on its cover tells the "why and how" people started collecting coins and how values are determined through the different methods of cleaning coins.

Spadone said he has received more than 1,000 letters expressing congratulations and comments on the autographed copy of this limited first edition.

The catalogs are available at $1.25 regular mail and $1.80 air mail by writing to M/Sgt. John G. Spadone, 36 Stage Coach Road, Vincentown, N. J.

Coin Valuation Topic For Club

Lake Tahoe, Calif., Coin Club will hold its next regular meeting at Tahoe Harrah's on Monday, June 5, at 8 p.m.

"What is the Value of my Coin?" was the title of a discussion held at the club's most recent meeting. Several members displayed parts of their collections.

Sutler Currency Both Good, Bad

By Hank Bleciuk

One of the most interesting series of notes in the obsolete currency field are those of the sutler. Some sutler notes are beautifully engraved pieces of currency. Others are crudely hand drawn notes. All are highly prized by collectors for their highly significant historical value. By definition, a sutler was an army appointed person who had the exclusive right or privilege to provide soldiers with goods and luxuries not provided by the army. Items such as tobacco, writing paper and ink, soap, candy, dried fruit, etc. were available at the sutler's wagon or store.

The sutler was, in a sense, a PX on wheels. As the army moved so did the sutler. Although he was not officially a member of the army, the sutler was assigned to a specific regiment and was required to move with the troops when they moved.

He was required to keep on hand all items desired by the soldiers. Prices for his merchandise were usually determined by a council of officers, based upon the cost of the merchandise. The prices charged by the sutler were usually much higher than those of a merchant in a large city or town.

However, this difference in price was due to the fact that the sutler had to purchase his goods wherever he could; often at full retail prices.

Pity the poor private who received the magnificent sum of $7 per month! His lot was not a happy one. By the time the soldier paid the sutler what was due him, there was little left and the soldier was forced to resort to buying on credit from the sutler again. By the same token, the sutler had troubles of his own to contend with.

When a soldier was transferred, his unpaid account with the sutler went with him since the army claimed that they were not a collection agency for the sutler. This was also true of the soldier who was killed in battle. In each instance the loss was wholly that of the sutler.

The army did, however, permit the sutler to be a participant at the pay table. On payday troops would be lined up in alphabetical order according to rank. When the paymaster would call forth a soldier for his pay, the sutler would be consulted as to what amount the soldier owed the sutler.

This amount would then be given to the sutler and the balance would be turned over to the soldier. However, the army regulations only permitted an indebtedness of one half of the soldier's pay. Any credit extended beyond this limit was solely at risk of the sutler and the paymaster was not required to turn over more than one half of the soldier's pay. It was up to the sutler to try and collect the balance due him.

During this Civil War period, there was a tremendous shortage of small change. The soldier, when paid, was often paid in large denominations (sic) in gold or silver. To compensate for the lack of small change, sutlers made and issued their own tokens and scrip notes.

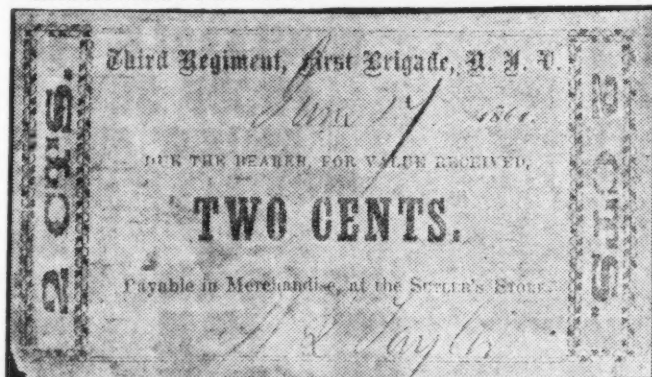

These sutler notes ranged in value from two cents to $2. (I have never seen or heard of a one cent sutler note, although it is possible that some were issued.) The soldier on payday could exchange part or all of his pay for these sutler notes.

Since the sutler's store was the only available place where money could be spent, it made little difference to the soldier whether he had gold, silver, or sutler notes in his pocket. Each spent equally as well as the other.

Arkansas Collectors Meet In Little Rock Recently

Officers of the Arkansas Numismatic Society are, left to right, W. M. Hackett, outgoing president; Dr. J. R. Luten, new vice president; C. G. Ball, newly-elected president, and Mrs. J. P. Willis, who is serving her third term as secretary. All of the officials are from Little Rock, site of the 14th annual convention.

Lyle O. Hill, of Little Rock, Ark., won the first place award for his complete set of cents from the beginning of mintage at the 14th annual convention of the Arkansas Numismatic Society, held at the Hotel Albert Pick in Little Rock.

The convention is always held in Little Rock for the spring session; other times it alternates sites over the state.

The newly-formed Greater Little Rock Coin Club served with the society officials as sponsors of the spring meeting.

Dr. J. R. Luten was auction master; J. P. Willis, bourse chairman; Frank Hamlin was in charge of the program and Mrs. Dennie Douglas, registration.

Dennie Douglas, Little Rock, won second prize for an exhibit of gold which included a complete set of Indian Head quarter eagles and several gem $3 gold pieces.

Hill's winning exhibit included large cents in very fine to uncirculated; the Indians and Lincolns were in uncirculated and proof.

Twenty-nine dealers represented six states and offered choice material. Matt Rother, of Camden, Ark., was auctioneer.

C. G. Ball, North Little Rock, was named new president; Dr. J. R. Luten, Little Rock, vice president; Mrs. J. P. Willis, Little Rock, secretary, and Robert Stroud, Desha, Ark., treasurer.

At the annual board meeting Dr. Harlan Blaine, charter member, was given an honorary membership and a letter of appreciation.

Jim Pelezo, of Greenville, Miss., displayed his 1924-S Mercury dime with the new hair-do, recently pictured in Coin World. He said he recently turned down a $100 offer for it.

Sharp-eyed collectors around the hotel found a 1910-S cent in Business and pleasure were combined for these dealers at the Arkansas Numismatic Society's convention in Little Rock. Top are Mr. and Mrs. Clark Childers of the Hobby House, Little Rock; center are B. G. Owen, Tomahawk Trading Post, Pottsville, Ark., and J. P. Willis, Willis Coin Mart, Little Rock. Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Fellers, Tulsa Coin Co., Tulsa, Okla., appear in the bottom photograph.

VF, a 1926-S dime, 1945 micro S dime, both fine, and a 1950-D nickel.

Most popular coin was a 1907 high relief St. Gaudens $20 gold, offering by the Willis Coin Mart of Little Rock. This coin was featured on a television program Friday before the convention as a publicity preview.

During the convention a rash of tornadoes and floods hit all parts of Arkansas and prevented a number of members from attending.

Changes Are Being Made in the COIN-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB

Because of the overwhelming response we have been receiving from you, the collectors, we have had to expand our operation. We have hired additional personnel and are splitting the company into several different divisions to handle specific items we have for sale.

Change of Name

Our first, and biggest change is a change in name . . . The former Coin-Of-The-Month Club will now be known as the Medal-Of-The-Month Club and will expand its operations. You will be hearing more about this in the future.

The Medal-Of-The-Month Club will continue to give you the same fine Commemoratives at the same low prices.

Change in Metals

We conducted an extensive survey, and have found that most collectors prefer to have their Commemorative Medals struck in a limited number of metals. By far the greatest number of those surveyed favored Sterling Silver and Nickel Silver as the two best metals.

Thus, future issues of the Medal-Of-The-Month Club will be in Sterling Silver and Nickel Silver only.

Lower Prices for Sterling

Also because of the great response from collectors, we are able to lower the price of the Sterling Silver Commemoratives.

The new Sterling Silver monthly subscription rate will be $3.75 for an individual medal.

The yearly rate will be a low $37.50 for all 12 yearly issues.

The six-month rate will be only $21.75.

Nickel Silver

Nickel Silver Commemorative Medal subscriptions will remain at the low price of only $12.00 per year, $6.50 for six months and $1.25 per month. Yearly rates for both metals are based on two months' individual prices. Thus, it is like receiving two medals free each year if you are a yearly subscriber.

Combination Sets

A set of both medals—one in Sterling and the other in Nickel Silver each month — will save you even more.

The combination Set costs only $4.75 each month, $27.75 for six months and only $47.50 per year.

Limited Number Struck

A lower mintage of the Medal-Of-The-Month Club Commemoratives has also been adopted, making each individual medal more desirable and giving it more potential value.

The Sterling Silver will be limited to only 5,000 per medal and Nickel Silver will be limited to 10,000 per medal. After this number has been struck, the dies will be made unusable and displayed in the Club Archives.

ANOTHER "SPACE-AGE COMMEMORATIVE" - NOW AVAILABLE

was successfully completed and is now being commemorated with a special

COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL ISSUED BY THE MEDAL-OF-THE-MONTH CLUB

The Medal-Of-The-Month Club is the new standard in commemorative medals, receiving the highest acclaim from avid collectors who say the club medals are the best contemporary medals they have seen. The interest, orders, and re-orders certainly show that the subscribers to the Medal-Of-The-Month Club are receiving the very finest in design and minting available.

First the club issued four Civil War Commemoratives . . . Then the "First Orbital Space Flight" Medal was issued, and interest soared . . . Now the Club is issuing the medal commemorating the historic flight into space by Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard, Jr. . . .

The Project Mercury Commemorative Medal is a MUST for your collection . . . a medal of superior design and execution . . . a medal so beautifully engraved and struck that even the most discriminating collector will find its proof-like, frosted, and mirror finish a joy to view.

As is the regular policy of the Medal-Of-The-Month Club, the quantity of medals struck will be strictly limited. 5,000 Sterling Silver and 10,000 Nickel Silver medals are all that will be struck from these dies. After this quantity is sold out, all additional orders will be returned.

The number of medals an individual collector can purchase is also limited to 8 sterling silver and 10 nickel silver.

ORDER YOUR PROJECT MERCURY SPACE COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL NOW...orders will be filled in the order they are received.

(NOTE—This is a regular issue of the Medal-Of-The-Month Club and will be sent to subscribing members automatically. Members can expect to receive their medals within the next few days, but should order additional medals now if they desire more than their present subscription.)

Specification: Size 1 5/16" (34 MM) in diameter by approx. .80/1000" thick. Will fit perfectly in regular Club Plastic Holders which are available for the Medal-Of-The-Month Commemoratives. #1—$1.25, #2—$1.50, #6—$4.50, #12—$5.50.

Another Club For Downey

Downey, Calif., now has its second coin club, the Downey Numismatists, which was organized recently with 82 charter members, according to a report from secretary Dorothy Anderson.

Elected officers comprise Paul Barnaby, president; Bob Linnvall, vice president; Jean Cassetty, treasurer, and the secretary.

One of the first official acts of the new club was to send in an application to join the Southern California Numismatic Association.

Area collectors are invited to attend the next meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, June 14, to be held at the Downey Women's Club, 9812 South Paramount Boulevard, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Downey's other coin club is the North American Numismatic Society, composed of employees of North American Aviation and their families, organized in 1958.

classes for judging, with first, second and thirds to be awarded both adults and junior members. The classes are paper money, foreign money, gold, silver, copper and miscellaneous. The judging will take place at 11 a.m.

Hours for the Show, to be in the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds, Hobby building number 22, are from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Displays must be in place by 10 o'clock. An auction will be held under the direction of Peter B. Payne of San Bernardino.

Information regarding bourse, auction, or exhibits may be obtained from general chairman LeRoy Myers, 1260 West 5th avenue, Pomona. Assisting him in putting on the Show are Ollie Hickman, Payne and Richard Collins.

Club Keeps Charter Open

Charter memberships will still be open at the next meeting, set for Wednesday, June 7, of the recently organized Eagle Coin Club of Ellwood City, Pa., to be held in the Municipal building.

Some 75 persons attended the last session, and 19 new members were accepted. Anthony Mazzei conducted the meeting in his capacity as club president.

To be used in a fund raising project, coins were donated by Michael Schuster, Joseph DeMasse, Fred Teolis and Allen R. Schweinsberg.

Club Meets At Y

The Key Coin Club of New Haven, Conn., has scheduled its next meeting for Sunday, June 4, to be held in the Y.W.C.A., 48 Howe Street, New Haven, starting at 7 p.m. Visitors are welcome, according to an announcement from Burton Shaine, corresponding secretary.

Dayton Club Reaches Goal For Members

The 250th meeting of the Dayton, Ohio, Coin Club was scheduled to be held on Thursday, June 1, at the Washington Federal Savings and Loan building, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the last session, it was announced that the 100th member had been accepted, and a free paid-up membership was given to Gerald Zwisler who helped the club reach the century mark. Seven other new members were accepted at the meeting.

Hank Spagenberger was given the $5 gold piece as the winner of the membership contest recently concluded. He had been responsible for seven new members. Jim Bird was second with six, and received a 1961 proof set. Both men donated their prizes to the club's collection.

Robert Gallagher won the prize for the best adult exhibit, with a display of world coins. Larry Young took the junior exhibit prize with a general display.

Feature of the program was a talk on California small gold coins by Henry Banner, who illustrated his talk with items from his collection.

Banner explained that the only genuine California gold minor denomination coins had the complete denomination on them, either "50 cents" or one-fourth, one-half or one "Dol." or "Dollar", with the fraction usually in figures, and that any other such coins were imitation if they had the fraction alone, without Dol. or Dollar.

Fair To Very Fine Early Half Dollar Club Joins Quarter Counterpart

By James G. Johnson

Letters are still coming in about old half dollars, in reference to the one pictured in this column in the issue of May 4. It looks as though we will have to have an "early half dollar" club, similar to the 1934 quarter club, which will devote itself to a study of the series. The quarter group will have a little harder time as there is no literature on that subject, but the old half dollars have their problems, also.

J. Johnson

M. L. Beistle wrote a pretty good book about them, but he did not illustrate it except for one or two years, and there were lots of things he did not mention. Among them, of course, was this "knobbed 2 with square base" which started off the whole thing.

He apparently was interested in other indications of die varieties, and presumably these various types of "2's" would fit in somewhere else but we don't know. Seems to me that an investigation would be adding to numismatic knowledge, either to prove something new or to disprove it, which is equally important.

There are several numismatists who have made themselves as expert as any on the early half dollars, including Al Overton of Pueblo, Colo., and Harmer Cole of Pennsville, N. J., and I am calling on them for advice in this matter. If they come through, I will report further to those who have written in already and to any who may do so in the future.

I received a nice letter from Victor L. LaVelle of Los Angeles, the man whom so many of you Coin World readers are helping. He says that things look a whole lot brighter thanks to the generosity of so many collectors who have extended their hands in friendship, which is synonymous with assistance in time of need.

As far as I am concerned, the best thanks that LaVelle could make to anybody would be that he become the kind of coin dealer that the average collector wants and needs, one who is fair and honest, and who uses the "Golden Rule" as his business standard; one who, to mention just one thing, uses the same grading to sell by as he does to buy.

There are many dealers who are that kind, but, unfortunately, there are some who are not, and they seem to stick out like sore thumbs. Perhaps one of the greatest assets a dealer can have, and I speak from knowing a lot of them and seeing in action a lot more, is an attitude of warm friendliness toward his customers, rather than one of suspicion and coldness.

After all, coin collecting, and numismatics generally, is an enjoyable hobby, and dealers should act as though they enjoyed being part of it and sharing their enjoyment with others. Friendliness never hurt a businessman, let alone a hobbyist.

J. G. Gollanshead of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, writes to ask where Mint-sealed bags of coins may be obtained during the year in which the coins are current.

I have answered that question before but I have a little further information on the general situation, and recent developments make it deserve further comment.

In my previous reference to the subject, I said that collectors could get them from the same place the dealers do, from banks. Coin World has printed a statement from the Federal Reserve Bank in New York (January 26) which I quote in part:

"Federal Reserve directive for the New York district (New York, New Jersey and part of Connecticut) suggesting that member banks screen requests for coins—and make certain 'all coins ordered were for the needs of business as a medium of exchange'.... The collectors are not our concern. We must caution banks to eliminate practices which tend to interfere with business.

"The Federal Reserve system's sole interest is to supply.... coins without regard as to year, mint, etc., nor to serve special purposes.... The spokesman said he believed this order would be issued simultaneously from other Federal Reserve banks across the country."

Which means, of course, that the Federal Reserve does not want member banks to make any special orders for collectors. All I know is that the only place that Mint-sealed bags may be obtained by any individual from a bank. Perhaps it is a matter of being lucky, that is, being present when such bags do come in, if they can't be ordered. It is obvious that they do come in, and that some people are getting them. What some can do, others can do, also. Ask your own banker about it.

Whether it is a matter of luck or anything else, it is highly advisable that you offer to pay shipping charges on any large quantities of coins, bags or rolls, that you get from a bank. They have to pay them, and if you ask a favor, you should expect to pay for it. Rolls cost a bank more than loose coin. And this is all I know about the bag business.

Like Will Rogers used to say, "All I know is what I read in the papers".

Changing the subject, a few weeks ago I wrote about the numismatic education a collector can get from reading the advertisements in a coin publication (preferably Coin World, of course).

There is another kind of help that readers can get. Many new officers of coin clubs have written asking for suggestions for club programs. In reply, I suggest reading the stories we carry on club news. From an average issue of Coin World enough different ideas can be obtained to work up a program for almost an entire year for any club, and it would certainly be true from two or three issues.

When coin clubs send us news, we try to pick out those things which are significant, which would be helpful to other clubs. I know that the average reader will look first for news from his own club, and then read it critically to see if it is complete and correct. Then he might or might not read the news about other clubs.

Not all of our stories about clubs carry just election of officers or the time and place of meeting, by any means. When we can get it, we also print the news of what the club has done or what a speaker has said about some aspect of collecting.

Not enough club secretaries or reporters send that in, but when they do, we print it, and we would like more than we get, if only because it would be helpful to other collectors or clubs. And the main purpose of Coin World's existence, as far as I am concerned, is to be helpful to collectors, since what helps them helps numismatics in general, because they ARE numismatics. Without collectors, there would be no numismatics. It's as simple as that. And if we don't help and encourage new ones coming up, when the old timers leave there would be nobody left to carry on. And that is my ending for this week.

MENTION "COIN WORLD" IN ANSWERING ANY AD!

Glenn Lucas, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cy Lucas, Morgantown, W. Va., found a 1914-D Lincoln cent recently. The seventh grader has a partial set of nearly every type coin in the U.S. series, and all were found in circulation.

Texas Club Stages Show

The Pampa, Texas, Coin Club scheduled a Coin and Gun Show for Saturday and Sunday, May 27 and 28 held in the Texas National Guard Armory in Pampa.

This will be the first major project for the club's new officers, elected in April. They are Mark White, president; Paul Clark, vice president, and Harold Daugherty, secretary-treasurer.

The next meeting of the Pampa club is slated for Thursday, June 1, in the Commissioner's room in the Pampa City Hall, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Triple Cities Urges Issue Of Civil War Commemorative

The Triple Cities Coin Club of Johnson City, N. Y., has passed a resolution and sent it to its district congressman and senator supporting the movement for a Commemorative half dollar in honor of the Civil War Centennial, according to a report from president Fred G. Hunter.

In the resolution, it was pointed out that no commemoratives have been minted since 1954; it was also requested that in any issue dealing with the Civil War the half dollar should be handled by the U.S. Mint as is done with proof sets, and sold, at a slight premium to cover costs, in limited quantities to collectors or whoever might want them.

It was requested that any left over should then be released by the Federal Reserve Bank and placed either in circulation or sent to member banks for local purchase.

Too many commemoratives have been placed for disposal into a private commission's hands, the club said, thus promoting speculation. Also, the United States is far behind other countries in the field of commemoratives, and other countries have both improved their standing as a nation and helped their treasuries, as well as given interesting numismatic material to the public.

The Triple Cities club has scheduled its next meeting for Tuesday, June 6, to be held in the Johnson City Moose Club, starting at 8 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

Indiana Club Meets In Decatur Hall

The recently organized Adams County Coin Club in Decatur, Indiana, scheduled its June meeting for Thursday, June 1, at the Local Union Hall, 2nd street, in Decatur, at 7:30 p.m., according to a report from the club president, Thomas Ehler.

Also reported was the election of the secretary, Jack Barlet of Monroe, Ind. No other officers were considered necessary, the report said. The new club has 45 regular members and three juniors.

Bishop Club Festival Part Of Centennial

In connection with the centennial celebration of Inyo County, Calif., the Southeastern Sierra Coin Club of Bishop held a special coin festival recently which was highlighted by the presentation of centennial coins to four "princesses" of county towns.

The Sweepstakes award for the best exhibit at the festival went to Velma Lloyd. Other award winners included Byron Works, first in adult display, with John Lutz and George Crothers tied for second; Mary Ford, first in miscellaneous display, with Works second.

Junior division awards were won by David Tetrick, first, and Christy Frost, second. Judging for both divisions was done by Aim Morhardt, Don Thompson of Reno, Nevada, and Fred Harper.

A feature of the affair was a talk by Don Thompson, of the New China Coin Shop in Reno, on "Carson City Dollars".

The four Inyo County princesses and their cities were Jackie Ayers, Independence; Sharon Bagwell, Lone Pine; Anita Sepsey, Big Pine, and Gail Bethel, Bishop. Harley Vincent, representing the coin club, made the presentation.

MY VIEWS ON THE 1960-D SMALL DATE CENTS -

In a recent issue of Coin World, my ad stressed the importance of the 1960 Small Date Cents and especially pointed to the Small Date Denver cents as an excellent future investment at today's market prices. I AM STILL OF THAT OPINION.

Along with other dealers and collectors I study ads to watch the trends in scarcity, popularity, etc. For the last two weeks I have observed that the 1960-D Small Date Cents have been advertised at a lower price than that which I will pay for them. We tried to buy them. The answer given us on the 'phone is quoted to you here - "... we are currently out of them but expect to be receiving some within the next few days. Send us your check, and if we get delivery, we will send a sack along to you..." It is obvious that the real intention of this dealer is not to sell at the low price quoted, but to discourage persons who own these rolls and thus frighten them into selling. A ruse of this type is not only unethical but reflects badly on the hobby in general and most certainly creates an unhealthy atmosphere.

It is still my opinion that the 1960-D Small Date Cent is a coin with a big future, and a terrific buy at today's market prices. To back up my words, I am offering $4.00 per roll for them in BU condition. A quick check of the ads will show that a week ago a Brooklyn, New York, dealer was supposedly selling these rolls at $3.75, I am offering to buy for $4.00. Please write first for quantities over 25 rolls.

Ashanti Miniatures Humorous Figures For Weighing Gold Dust

By Loraine Burdick

Ashanti on the Gold Coast of West Africa is known to museums for its fascinating miniatures. These small figures were cast for weighing gold dust, the district's chief mineral and money. Because the Ashanti natives enjoyed handcrafts, they made these figures and geometric designs instead of using plain weights.

The smallest weights were rather simple squares or rectangles. They measured from one-half to three-fourths inch in a wide and had little X lines and pitchforks or just lines to divide the space.

However, for larger weights, humor and detail were prominent features. Here are two friends who shake hands while pointing to themselves. The taller man is decidedly straight with arms longer than his legs. What appears to be a bandage above his eye is really his hairline, which has a peak at the top and a large curl on the neck—which could be hair or a wire necklace.

The antelope has carefully-split hooves, but only one long horn. On his back a bug-eyed cowbird is hard at her pecking. While these miniatures may not be realistically shaped, their humor was certain to promote friendship while the gold dust was weighed on the other side of the balance.

It is possible that they also promoted accurate weighing, for who could resist picking one up and studying it, thus finding out what it weighed. The two friends weigh, by the way, a total one-half ounce.

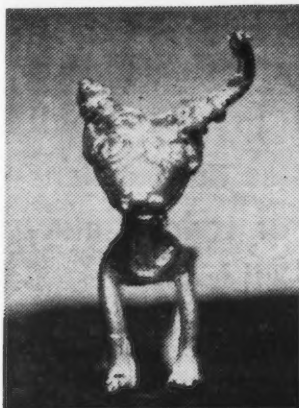

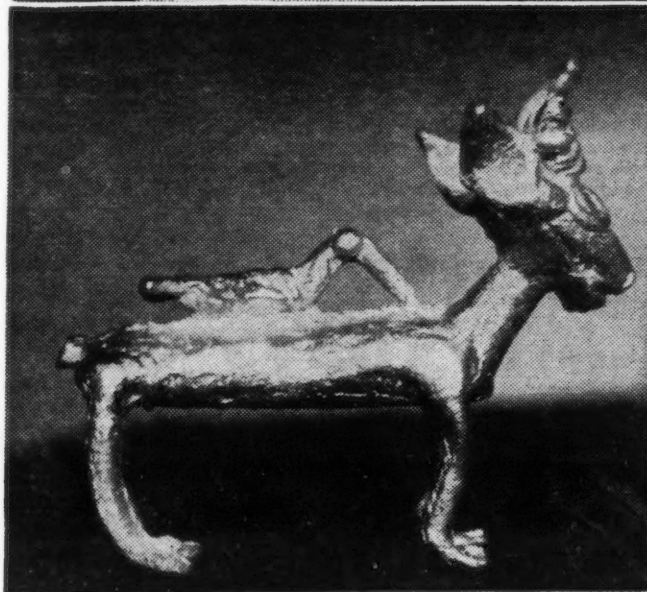

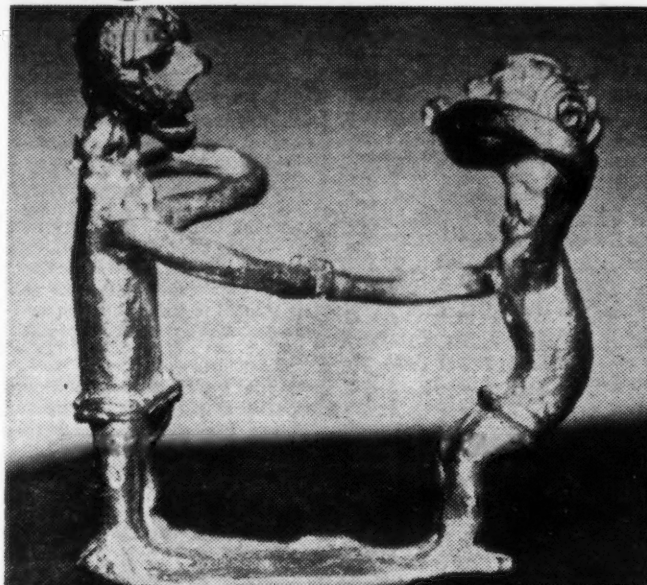

Perhaps you have no gold dust to weight, but exact museum reproductions of these somewhat rare specimens can be secured either as miniatures or charms for a bracelet. The original weights have been exactly reproduced by the University of Pennsylvania Museum. Although not exactly money, they are closely related to any coin collection and sure to fascinate.

Address: The University Museum, University of Pennsylvania, 33rd and Spruce Streets, Philadelphia 4, Pa.

The smaller geometric weights are available as earrings but the miniature creatures are more true to their purpose and cost about $3.50 each cast in brass with gold plating.

The two friends stand just over an inch tall and there are also a strange little monster, an ornate bird, or the antelope.

Since the Gold Coast is now Ghana, the Ashanti miniatures belong with the coinage of that country.

Jet Mechanic Seeks Help In Ancient 'Coin' Identity

By Marilyn Walker

T/Sgt. Vernon Niemi, a jet mechanic at Perrin Air Force Base, Texas, owns a strange object he would like identified. He thinks it may be an ancient coin or religious medallion.

A round disc, about seven inches in diameter with a hole in the center, the object seems to be carved from jade or some other hard, smooth stone. Symmetrical designs are carved on both sides of the medallion but each side is different.

One side of the disc has a bird's head, with a slightly curved beak and a flowing topknot, etched in the design. But this is the only portion of the pattern that seems to represent a living form.

The color of the jade or stone is a rather mottled mixture of off-white and olive green.

Sergeant Niemi attempted to identify the object by taking it to T/Sgt. Herbert O. Horner of his squadron who is president of the Texomaland Coin Club which meets in Denison. But Sgt. Horner was unable to find any reference in his coin publications to such a piece, nor were other members of the club familiar with such an object.

"Markings on the disc are similar to those on ancient Aztec coins," Sgt. Horner said, "The bird resembles the Indian Thunderbird."

But another "expert" on the base though the bird resembled a Chinese ringnecked pheasant. Sgt. Niemi related that he found a description which sounded similar under the heading of "money" in his children's encyclopedia. This led him to take the object to the coin club member.

Is this an ancient coin?

Where did the coin come from? Sgt. Niemi has no idea. He obtained it about 10 years ago from his father-in-law, William Moses of New York City. And Moses picked it up during his travels in World War I while he was in the Navy, and he doesn't remember where or in what part of the world he obtained it.

Sgt. Niemi, whose present address is 1600 W. Houston, Sherman, Texas, would like to hear from anyone who might help identify the object.

A veteran of 15 years in the Air Force, Sgt. Niemi came to Perrin AFB two and one-half years ago from an overseas tour at Woodbridge, England. He was with the 79th Fighter Bomber Squadron there.

He spent another tour in England during War II when he was with the Eighth Air Force at Liverpool from '44 to '46. Sgt. Niemi hails from Grand Marais, Mich., and his wife, Pauline comes from New York. They have three children, Barbara, 9; Mark, 6; and Michael, 3.

Cent In Copper-Nickel

The genuine Confederate cent was struck only in copper-nickel, in proof, and the 12 coined were never issued.

Victor La Velle Total Over Thousand Dollars

Total retail value of coins received as of May 15 has passed the $1,000 mark, Victor L. La Velle, Los Angeles, advised Coin World.

A succession of tragedies in La Velle's life climaxed with the robbery of a small amount of coins he had hoped to use as a start for a coin shop.

Coin World readers rallied with great compassion and generosity. "I believe I may be able to start a small mail order business from my home with the coins I have received," said La Velle.

La Velle told Coin World he is "quite far behind" in answering his mail.

"Please inform your readers that every letter will be answered no matter how long it takes," he said.

Darby Group Forms In May

Darby, Conn., Coin collectors have a new club, formed in May, with 58 members signed at the first meeting, according to a report from secretary Loretta Eaton Sember.

To be called the "Valley Coin Club", the group plans twice a month meetings. At the organizational session, the following officers were elected:

Joseph S. Sember, president; William J. Riordan, vice president; Emil Bures, treasurer; Loretta Sember, secretary, and William J. Dunne, curator and historian.

Alexander Great

The influence of Alexander's coins had a decisive effect on the coinage of his successors in their different kingdoms. A few free towns struck their own silver but even they leaned to Alexandrian types.

Collectors Club of Boston members who have contributed to La Velle's fund include:

Laurence P. Martin, 1961 proof set; Leonard H. Finn, roll uncirculated 1960-D nickels; John E. McMillan, $1 bill; Grace D. Lincoln, roll 1961-D uncirculated Lincoln cents; Alan M. Goldberg, 1939-D Jefferson nickel, two 1960-D small date Lincoln cents.

Milton R. Feinstein, 10 circulated Indian Head cents; Joseph F. Fraumeni, a assorted Canadian coins; Edward M. Katz, 10 Liberty head nickels; Andrew S. Scott, roll uncirculated 1961-D Lincoln cents; Richard G. Arnold, roll 1954 Lincoln cents; Allen N. Vilardofsky, roll of Lincoln cents.

Other club contributions to La Velle include the Farmland Coin Club, Farmland, Ind.; Upland Coin Club, Upland, Calif.; Aurora Coin Club, Aurora, Ill.; Yonkers Coin Club, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Police Chief Writes Thanks To Coin World

Gilbert Warren Justin, recently extradited from Detroit to Long Beach, Calif., has admitted the robbery of the Allen Coin and Stamp Company in Long Beach, and several thousand dollars' worth of rare coins and stamps have been recovered, Chief of Police William J. Mooney advised Coin World.

Chief Mooney said, however, that Donald Walter Holmwood has not yet been apprehended, and is still wanted by his department on a robbery charge.

"We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the assistance you rendered in circulating the information concerning these two men through your newspaper," said Chief Mooney.

Justin was arrested in Detroit

Proof Set Has Bonus Dime

This 1960 proof set was a bonus from Uncle Sam — it has two dimes in the same pocket. Owner John McNail, Milan, Tenn., said he has heard of only one other instance of such a freak package, reported by Albert Lee, of Kentucky.

April 7 because David Raben, manager of Schuman's Coin Shop in Detroit, was alert.

Justin tried to sell Raben some coins and stamps at 40 per cent below catalog value. Raben notified police, and set up the investigation that led to Justin's arrest. Police found thousands of dollars worth of coins and stamps in his department.

Roger Douglass Ringler, Fairfield, Calif., turned in coins apparently from a collection to police after he found them in a park.

Gold coins valued at $2,235, stolen at the home of Czeslaw Groch, Hialeah, Fla., recently have been recovered and the case marked closed, the Hialeah Detective Bureau has announced. There will be no prosecution.

A thief broke into the Hattiesburg, Miss., shop of L. E. Wicht and took $200 in rare coins including an 1853 dollar gold piece.

A collection of coins valued at $125 was taken from the Co-op Elevator at Newkirk, Okla., recently when burglars hit five business places in the area.

Two Types Halves

Arkansas Centennial Commemorative half dollars were issued in two types, both with the same reverse. One type had the head of Senator Robinson, was dated 1936 and struck in 1937, Philadelphia only. All others, from 1935 through 1939, including 1937, have heads of an Indian and a girl.

Numismatic Books Gift To Library

The Tazewell Numismatic Society of Pekin, Ill., has made a gift of numismatic books to the Pekin public library. Norman Wolfer, club president, made the presentation of copies of "Selections from the Numismatist".

for either of the two papers.

Old U. S. coins have also carried premiums toward the payment of subscriptions or renewals: 10 cents for each Indian head cent or V-Nickel; 20 cents for each dime dated before 1932; 50 cents for each quarter dated before 1925; and 75 cents for each half-dollar dated before 1916.

Claude E. Sparks, editor, said that this has been part of a "very successful" promotional program for his newspapers.

Commemoratives Out

Some commemorative half dollars have been placed in circulation by the U. S. Treasury Department.

Ertl Named New President

Andrew Ertl was named president of the Fond Du Lac, Wis., Coin Club, succeeding "Curly" Ochs, founder and first president of the club.

Other new officers include Del Lambert, Ripon, Wis., secretary; Roger Eaton Sr., member, board of directors.

The club which has 45 charter and 10 post - charter members meets at City Hall the second Tuesday and last Thursday of each month.

It is dedicated to the promotion of fellowship and to cultivation of numismatic knowledge. Theme for the year will be the Civil War and Fond Du Lac's role in it.

A gift was presented to the retiring president for his great work in numismatics in the city of Fond Du Lac.

Visitors were collectors from Appleton, Wis.

Club Helps In Bulletin

A series of new ideas and suggestions are found in the current American Numismatic Association Officers' Bulletin, edited by Matt Rotherth, second vice president, of Camden, Ark.

The bulletin issued periodically to A.N.A. member clubs as a special service.

Examples of the suggestions are:

The Arkansas Valley Coin Club, Colo., mails a monthly bulletin to its members; it found awarding a rare coin stimulates interest at each meeting.

The Collectors Club of Boston has live-wire leadership in the form of Andrew Scott, its president, and books topnotch speakers such as Vernon Brown, curator of the Chase Museum of Monkeys of the World; Hans Schulman, international numismatist and Coin World columnist, and Dr. George Fuld, token authority.

The Calumet Numismatic Club of Illinois has presented numismatic books to the local library for the past 16 years. The club invites neighboring numismatists to join them for a dinner; it keeps the dues low.

California State Numismatic Association publishes a 44-page quarterly magazine, "Calcoin News." The editor is Charles V. Kappen, 2201 Peachtree Lane, San Jose, 28, Calif.

An attribution test featuring slides of U. S. and foreign coins—some tough and some easy—was planned by the Chicago Coin Club. The papers were graded and prizes went to the top three winners.

The Evansville, Ill., Coin Club mails a large size post card each month called "Coin Club News."

Kokomo, Ind., Coin Club gives medals to each officer at the annual banquet.

A $5 cash award at each meeting has increased the number of displays at the Los Angeles, Calif., Coin Club. Each member making a display is given a blue ribbon. There is no competitive judging.

The North Dakota Coin Club says its members find sufficient personal and numismatic interests to keep them from seldom missing a meeting. The club is selective in new members, and labels itself as a study club for adults and experienced collectors.

National Coin Week and an all-day exhibit in November are the two big projects held by the Oak Park, Ill., Coin Club.

The Penn-Ohio Coin Clubs now prints a club News as a communication between its officers, members and associated clubs.

A coin auction every meeting is a feature of the Wichita, Kansas, Coin Club.

Texas Club Elects Officers

The Texomaland Coin Club of Denison, Texas, celebrated its first birthday anniversary in May, and the 1961-62 officers took over for the year, headed by Sgt. H. O. Horner as president.

Other recently elected officers include: Gus Robinson, vice president; Mrs. Mary Weininger, secretary; J. K. Megginson, treasurer, and H. E. Kollert, reporter.

The club ended its first year with 40 senior and 18 junior members. Interested collectors are invited to attend the next meeting, scheduled for Friday, June 9, in the Chamber of Commerce building in Denison, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Searcy Club Meets In Community Room

The Searcy, Ark., Coin Collectors Club has scheduled its next meeting for Tuesday, June 6, to be held in the Community room of the Searcy bank, starting at 7 p.m. Organized only last fall, the club invited anyone interested in old coins to attend the meeting.

Climax Club Names Officers

Newly elected officers for 1961-62 of the Climax, Mich., Coin Club, headed by Harley B. Skinner of Schoolcraft, Mich., as president, will have responsibility for a complete meeting for the first time, when the club holds its next session, scheduled for Thursday, June 8, at 110 North Main Street, Climax, starting at 8 p.m.

Elected vice president was Chester Betterly, Battle Creek, with Bette Anderson, Battle Creek, being chosen secretary, and Bill Durian, Kalamazoo, treasurer.

Retiring officers included Fred Beattie, Vickburg, Mich., president; Leon Boven, Kalamazoo, vice president; Mrs. Eva Meyers, Kalamazoo, secretary, and Al Bobrofsky, Battle Creek, treasurer.

Librarian Norm Schallberg, Climax, retained his office.

Visiting coin club members and others interested in coin collecting are invited to attend meetings of the Climax club.

Maine Group Meets In Fall

Saturday, September 16, has been set for the semi-annual meeting of the Maine Numismatic Association, to be held in Pilgrim House, Brunswick, according to a report from the secretary of the Association, Mrs. L. A. Van Horn of Augusta.

In a previous report, the town had been announced, but the date and building location had not been decided. Also previously unreported was the election of Archie Ruel of Bethel, Maine, as vice president of the organization, and the re-election of Mrs. Van Horn. Both elections took place at the spring meeting in Ogunquit.

The fall session will be under the direction of William E. Elms, president of the Association, and also president of the Brunswick Area Coin and Stamp Club which will act as host to the state meeting.

Dealers' Group To Hold Session June 6

North Jersey Stamp and Coin Dealers' Association will hold its first bourse at its next regular meeting scheduled for Tuesday, June 6, (8:30 p.m.) at the Fair Lawn Stamp & Coin Co., 6-11 Fair Lawn Ave., Fair Lawn, N. J.

Joseph Edelman, Association president, said that memberships are still open.

Anniversary Medals

Two types of two-peso coins were struck in connection with the 400th anniversary of the establishment of the Mexican Mint in 1573. They were the same size and weight as the famous "ocho reales" (eight bits).

Confederate Rarities

Only four genuine Confederate half dollars ever existed, and they were distributed to four individuals. The Confederacy did, however, strike normal U. S. half dollars in quantity.

Florida Collectors Stage Recent Show

Spectators check exhibits at a recent coin and stamp show at Fort Walton Beach, Florida.

A mystery box containing 14 coins worth $315.75 was the nucleus of a guessing contest at a recent show jointly sponsored by the Sonic Boom Coin Club, the Elgin Air Force Base Coin Collectors and the Area Stamp Collectors at the Fort Walton Beach, Fla., USO Building.

Another feature attraction was a gold medal presented to the family of Franklin D. Roosevelt by the CIO in recognition of his service to the cause of labor.

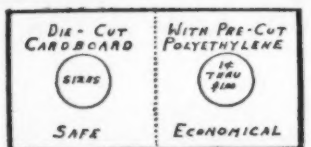

This was the first time the medal was displayed publicly.

Judy Carraher, Fort Walton Beach, won first prize in the contest; Mike Long, Fort Walton Beach, second; William Zaccard, Fort Walton Beach, and Darrell D. Webb, Hurlbert Field, Fla., placed third.

Exhibitors arranged displays of ancient and medieval coins, crowns, U. S. types sets, U. S. series, gold coins, U. S. and world stamps.

Convention official included S. Sgt. Jack A. Meyer, Mr. Alfred Pond, S. Sgt. Martin Crusse, Mrs. Martin Crusse and Maj. John Southwick.

Variety Of Famous Medal Found

By George Fuld

In the issue of the SMTOPMC page published several weeks ago, an unique specimen of the round silver Indian Peace medal in the British Museum was described.

The author late last summer discovered still another new specimen of these "elusive" Indian Peace medal series in an auction lot of miscellaneous English regal and English 'colonial tokens' purchased sight unseen from an English auction sale.

According to Jameson's book on the Indian Peace Medals, the first known specimens were struck during the reign of George I of England. They are by far the crudest of all the Indian Peace Medal series, and are the only ones of this series that were NOT struck in silver — but struck in copper only. All other Indian Peace Medals come only in silver, and bronze or copper specimens are either fabrications or restrikes.

The piece illustrated herewith is quite similar to the three different pieces illustrated in Jameson's book (although a far better condition than any shown there), but is distinguished by having curved rays from the sun on the reverse.

Authentic copper Indian Peace Medal in fine state of preservation, bought sight unseen from an English auction.

The reverse also shows an Indian shooting a bow and arrow at a deer in the left field. Apparently because of its flimsy nature, and the fact generally a chief's medal was buried with him (not passed on), the copper medal of the 1714-1727 period is extremely rare, especially in fine preservation.

I might note that the only other record of a similar piece, with the curved sun rays was in the R. C. Davis sale, New York, in 1890, and might be the same die variety as the one shown.

Surprised Token Manufacturer Learns Of Product Variations

A token student with fitting and proper dedication to detail uncovered a token variation unknown even to the manufacturers themselves—not until they read Melvin O. Carmichael's writing (Page 42) in the March 30 edition of Coin World!

William E. Bryant, vice president of the Wendell-Northwestern, Inc., manufacturers of marking products and advertising specialties, thought Coin World readers might like to share his fun—razzing some of the fellows in the firm's engraving department.

Citing the story, "Token Authority Makes Study of Oregon Issues," written by Carmichael, Bryant disclosed Carmichael had discovered something about their tokens they didn't know themselves—that some of the medals and tokens show smoke coming from four stacks and some show smoke from only two stacks.

Then Bryant became serious and presented a detailed discussion of how such a thing could happen, an interesting sidelight for Coin World readers as an aftermath of a "numismatic error."

Bryant said: "All of the medals and tokens mentioned (as well as many, many more) were struck by our company, as we were the only concern authorized to make coins bearing the Oregon centennial seal.

The total quantity ran into hundreds of thousands, all identical (or so we thought until reading Coin World) on the obverse, with the reverses carrying different legends from various counties, etc., in quantities of from 1000 on up.

"With perhaps around 100 tons of pressure required for each medal or token, you can well imagine what a tremendous beating the obverse die would have to take in a coining run—100,000 tons for just one thousand pieces. There are many variables as to just how long a coining die will hold up before cracking under the terrific tonnage required.

"The design itself is a factor, depth of engraving, relative hardness of planchets, etc., but the most common causes are an imperfection in the highest quality tool steel that money can buy, dies that are over-hardened, or error in getting two planchets in between the dies when there should be only one!

"When a die breaks, it has to be re-made, of course, and because we have no way of knowing if or when breakage will occur, we're thrown way off our production schedule until the die can be re-made.

"Dies like the Oregon one are slow to make and involve both pantograph and hand engraving. Whereas we figure about five weeks lead time (from the time an order is placed until the dies are ready for coining) on a new order, when a die breaks we have to just drop everything and make a new one in days or even hours. "Believe me, there's nothing worse than to have an order coming along beautifully, advising the customer that his shipment will be going out in just a day or two, and then have a die shatter in the middle of a run!

"The engraver who makes a die to replace a broken one is under a great amount of pressure from management to hurry, hurry, so our customer won't be disappointed on our delivery promise.

"And that's undoubtedly why (and we quote from Mr. Carmichael) "some of the tokens or medals show smoke issuing from all four of the stacks, from others smoke issues from only two of the stacks."

Coined Word Dignifies Specialty

By Russell Rulau
San Diego, Calif.

Readers who have been following this column for the last several weeks will have noted that there is a general tendency, long-established, to use terms to describe tokens and related metallic discs which are vague and without definitive limitations. Seemingly token collectors themselves are most responsible for this "terminology which is not terminology."

The word token, of course, is broad in scope and will cover a multitude of otherwise-unrelated items, but it needs considerable research, plus the all-important actual usage in any modified form before it can be logically restricted in meaning.

Our society is unfettered by senseless precedents and shop worn terms which have become vulgarized, obsolete and changed beyond recognition through erroneous usage. I feel, therefore, that we can lead in the direction of standardization of terminology.

For some such reason I coined the word "exonomist", which seems to be gaining acceptance. The word was to gradually replace in the public mind such indefinite and lengthy phrases as "collectors of tokens and all that sort of thing," "specialists in medals and badges," and some less flattering terms like "trash collectors" or "slug collectors."

Who could have foreseen one year ago that such a giant step forward as even the combining of interests of broken bank note collectors, tax token collectors and collectors of military orders could ever come about? Under the broad and benevolent hand of numismatics this had become a working possibility—under our Society it has become a reality.

It becomes our duty to provide exonomist items with exact standards and appropriate definitions. Some of my colleagues are already working in this direction in the field of So-Called Dollars, but unfortunately they are working at cross-purposes.

It probably will require a collector with a background as a classical grammarian and the patience of an ambassador to Russia

Freehold Club Being Organized

Wednesday, June 7, has been set for the next meeting of the Freehold, N. J., Coin Club which is so new that it has only two offices as yet, both held by one man, Carl L. Nelson, who is both acting president and acting secretary-treasurer.

The meeting is to be held in the Borough library on East Main street in Freehold, starting at 8 p.m., according to a report by Nelson. The 10 members who started the club invite any interested collectors in the area to attend the meeting.

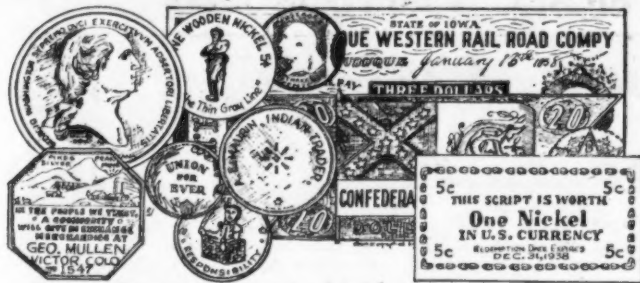

to iron out some of the knotty quirks in our present usage. For example, shall we consider the dollar-denomination California souvenir gold pieces as so-called dollars, as tokens, as medallions, as fantasy coins, as counters, as souvenir coins, or as all of these at the same time?

A learned dissertation could be composed to support any of these possibilities, and probably more, but why should it be necessary at all? Dealers' sale catalogues are notoriously inaccurate when it comes to describing token issues, and these add further to the confusion which exists. Five recent catalogues described a single item in five different (and all inaccurate) ways, presumably to add to its sale price.

The answers to the standardization needed cannot be found in these few brief words. It will only come about as a result of the publication of books and articles devoted to the scientific yardsticks used on most issues of coins.

Thus Dr. John S. Davenport in his excellent works on dollar-sized coins of the world excluded from his listings all questionable issues and gave an aura of impeccability to the term "crown". There is no reason whatever why a similar series of catalogues on any medal, token or currency series cannot be readily accepted as a standard by collectors of such series.

The Society Of Token, Medal &

Obsolete Paper Money Collectors

Editor: Dr. George Fuld, Box 6047, Baltimore, Md.
Friday, June 2, 1961

EDITOR'S NOTE: This page in Coin World is furnished by The Society of Token, Medal and Paper Money Collectors as a means of communication to its members, as well as for general information to the collecting public.

We will attempt to publish short articles, and notes on various unusual tokens, medals and paper money. A number of articles have appeared in Coin World about the society, and collectors are cordially invited to write to the secretary, Mrs. Lucy A. Kelly, 3410 Ford street, McKeesport, Pa. The Society publishes its own quarterly journal.

The editor of this page would be delighted to receive any comments from readers on the general field of tokens, medals or paper money, and would especially welcome suggestions for articles to appear on this page.

Coin World Aids Identity

As a result of an article in Coin World, John M. Coffee Jr., editor of The Fare Box, American Vecturist Association publication, received information about various unidentified tokens.

Pat Provenza, St. Augustine, Fla., wrote about unidentified token No. 56. He said the company that issued this token was a turpentine processing and loading firm, located 35 miles south of St. Augustine on U. S. Highway 1.

The tokens exist in denominations of five, 10, 25, 50 and $1 and were used in the company commissary by employees in the late 1920's and early 1930's. The tokens definitely were never used for transportation, according to Provenza.

MENTION "COIN WORLD" IN ANSWERING ANY AD!

More Token Definitions

WOODEN NICKEL — Here we have a case of a legend come to life. The old expression, "Don't take any wooden nickels" gave rise in the last 30 years or so to the issue of just such items by centennial celebration committees, exposition committees etc., to publicize their enterprises, and occasionally by merchants as advertising checks.

Sometimes these wooden nickels appear as imitations in wood of the Buffalo nickel (disc-shaped and printed designs), other times as flat advertising notes made of wood, cardboard and other substances. Wooden nickels are really just an extension of the principle of advertising notes, hard rubber store cards etc.

The one prerequisite collectors must find on these pieces before they will consider them true wooden nickels is that they must express their denomination as "1 wooden nickel", "5 wooden nickels" etc.

SO-CALLED DOLLARS—(There has been much recent controversy over just how broad this term is. It is not our intention to become involved in this controversy, but merely to define the term as it is generally understood.)

This indefinite term, in use only for some 80 years in this country, is applied to exposition and commemorative medals, both official and private; to political and satirical pieces, especially those touching on monetary matters; and to tokens and trade checks. All must be of dollar size, denomination or character.

Recent expansion of the term has led to the inclusion of advertising checks, unofficially countermarked coins, merchants' medals etc. of dollar size and to commemorative medals of somewhat less (or more) than dollar-size.

This term bridges the gap between tokens, medals, politicals and counters, because it either can, or does, include some of each. The tendency of the moment is to extend it even further rather than to restrict its meaning.

European nations have long had similar terms applied to their dollar-sized medals and unofficial monetary issues. European synonyms include Gedenkhäler, Denk-münze, Thalerformige Medaille, Schauthaler and many others in Germany, Austria-Hungary etc. France had its Module de Cinq Francs, Venice its Osella, to name a few.

Undoubtedly, due to the current high interest in these pieces, the controversy between the "expansionists" and "restrictionists" will rage for some years.

SO-CALLED HALF DOLLARS—By extension of the principle of the So-Called Dollar, a heterogeneous assortment of half-dollar-size medals, tokens, et cetera ad infinitum has been given this artificial term. It may be defined exactly as its precursor, but has much less basis in acceptance or usage.

The author feels that this term was manufactured for purely commercial reasons to sell certain issues which, without a direct tie to some previously-accepted series, would likely be ignored by buyers. The term is gaining acceptance, however, and being extended to cover many desirable and undesirable items.

Baraboo Club Elects Officers

Baraboo, Wis., Coin Club elected officers at its recent meeting in the City Hall. The following members were all re-elected to their posts: Vern Krueger, president; R. E. Darrow, vice-president; Clarence Rudolph, secretary; Kenneth Kinnamon, treasurer.

The Baraboo "News-Republic" has commented: "The local coin club now has 51 members, giving it an exceptionally large membership, made up of coin collectors from not only Baraboo, but Wisconsin Dells, Portage and the surrounding area."

Next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, June 6 at 7:30 p.m., in city hall.

Seattle Club Gets Underway

A new constitution and by-laws were slated to be discussed at the June 1 meeting of the recently organized Lake City Coin Club of Seattle, Wash., according to temporary chairman M. N. Saltzgeber.

The meeting was scheduled to be held at the Lions Club Community Center, 125th and 28th Avenue N. E., in Seattle, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the May session, additional temporary officers were chosen, Elaine Heyer being elected temporary secretary, and David Crist, temporary treasurer, Saltzgeber reported.

Poor Pedagogy Blamed For Early Coinage Errors

Don Wydeven of Kimberly, Wisc., writes that he has an 1832 half dollar with the following lettering on the edge: "Fifty Cents Orif a Dollar", and wants to know whether Mint error collectors would be interested. He also has 1960 nickels with blobs above the letters in Liberty and the date, and some older coins he would like identified.

ANSWER: The half dollar errors on the lettered edge seem to have been overlooked by Beistle in his book on die varieties, possibly because they were common. We have seen them without the H of Half, and with the H punched directly on top of the A, and those without any particular study, just happened to notice them.

We do know that there was a good deal of both ignorance and carelessness among early Mint workers on most levels, and poor spelling was not uncommon. As a matter of fact, early spelling was neither standardized nor taught to everybody in those days, and consistency in spelling is more surprising than the lack of it.

These could be interesting to specialists in half dollars or to Collectors of Mint Errors, although the members of that Society seem to go in more for modern mistakes than for early ones. We would be glad to hear from either group as to their reactions in this matter, and will forward to you any information that might be useful.

As for the nickels, there seem to be quite a few of these around, known variously as "bar" nickels or "Morse Code" nickels, and some dealers are advertising them for sale, with what success we have no idea. Club auctions are good places to find out values.

On the other coins, as far as we can make out in limited time for research, the silver 1810 piece is a 3-Kreuzer coin from Bavaria, of which Maximilian Joseph was King. That period seems to have been skipped over in the books we had time to look in, mostly in German.

The 1919 iron 10 Pfennig piece is a puzzler. Our reference books show a few iron coins for Germany in 1921 also before 1919, but this has "Stadt Trier" inscribed, not the usual German wording. Trier is in The Netherlands (Holland) and we will make a guess that it was emergency coinage issued immediately following World War I out of whatever metal came to hand. If anybody writes us differently, we will tell you.

Your third rubbing was flattened out, and we could not get any picture from it.

John Arnott of The Bronx, N. Y., asks about some old worn coppers, with Georgius III on them, one dated 1807, and a seated lady on the reverse. One is quite large.

ANSWER: These are old English coins. Britannia is on the reverse. The large one is the original "Cartwheel" two - penny (Continued on Page 40) piece. Both are listed in Raymond's "Coins of the World", 19th Century Issues. Date on the large one is probably 1797 if you could read it.

Ray Seward of Rutland, Vt., has a 10-Centavo piece of Mexico dated 1946, Yeoman's No. 36 which stopped at 1945, according to Yeoman. Reinfield did, too, and Seward wants to know how come.

ANSWER: Both, by some coincidence, made the same mistake. Yeoman has corrected it in his 4th edition, which now lists the coin through 1946.

Miss Opal C. Johnson of Albuquerque, N. M., former secretary of the Albuquerque Coin Club, writes a letter that many collectors can identify themselves with. We quote:

"A friend visited me when I was ill and got me interested in coins. I am a 'penny-hound' as that is what I collect, mostly because they fit my purse. I have completed one Lincoln Cent set, finding them all in somebody's purse or pocket change.

"Oddly enough, I found my 1909-S VDB and 1914-D when I still had 14 or 15 holes yet to fill. Hope someday to find a 1922-plain and 1955 'shift' to add to the original set.

"To my joy, I found a second 1914-D. But my joy disappeared when a magnifying glass showed it was an altered 1944-D."

Columbus Club Has Birthday

The Coin Show and Exhibit being put on this Friday, Saturday and Sunday by the Columbus, Ohio, Numismatic Society at the Neil House in Columbus, is the society's method of celebrating its 55th anniversary of existence, a recent announcement stated.

The Columbus group was founded in 1906, and thus is one of the oldest clubs in the United States. It was incorporated in 1954.

Originally scheduled for June 3 and 4, the Show was expanded to a three-day event June 2-4 when the Hotel made the facilities available for the extra day. Planned are exhibits, auction and bourse Duane Lockwood is general chairman.

improve the coins in the set, at the same time starting a nickel or dime book. You can use duplicates of scarcer coins to trade for those you can't find. That is part of the enjoyment in coin collecting. Good hunting to you.

E. B. Green, Boston, Mass., writes about cleaning coins, a subject important to many collectors and frequently discussed. He wants to know if it isn't possible to find a harmless substance.

ANSWER: Dr. Epps says benzine and ethyl are the only absolutely safe cleaning materials. When ordinary air will harm a coin, how much more is a chemical likely to do so? To us, that's logic. It may not show up for some time, but the damage could be there. But it is up to the coin owner, in the final analysis, whether he wants a cleaned coin with an artificial-appearing surface in his collection or not. The great majority of "old timers" in numismatics won't have any of it. Ask one of them.

Walter J. Dembrinski, of Columbus, Ohio, asks for a list of so-called "key" coins in the current series from quarters down to cents.

ANSWER: First, what is a "key" coin? A couple of years ago, the word was unknown in numismatics. Some dealer "coined" it or adapted it to mean a scarce coin that is hard to find but one that is necessary to complete a given series, or is the "key" to completion, or so we assume.

So, there can be as many "key" coins as any body wants to call by that name, or as few. In Roosevelt dimes, the 1955-D and Phila. and 1949-S had the lowest mintages, 12 million and up. In the Mercury dime, anything under five million mintage could qualify, nickels about the same. In Lincoln cents, possible 10 million and under would entitle a coin to be called "key", but that is still just one's man's guess.

Basic Ancient Coins

Basic denominations in ancient times for coinage were the drachm, obol, stater, litra, daric and hecte.

Fresno Club Report Finds

Judging by the experience of the Fresno, Calif., Numismatic Society, 1931-S Lincoln cents are not as scarce in that area as they are elsewhere. Four were found in one month by club members, and two were up for sale in the club auction, going for $13.75 and $13.75, respectively, in FV, according to a report in "The Fresno Numismatist", club bulletin.

Also reported was the "bargain" of the year, when a 1913 half dollar, condition not stated, was bought for $1 at the first May auction.

The Fresno group has scheduled its next meeting for Friday, June 2, to be held in the Knights of Pythias Hall, Divisadero and "R", starting at 7:30 p.m. An auction will be held.

Florida Club To Hold Meeting June 6

The Central Bervard Coin Club of Cocoa, Fla., will meet on Tuesday, June 6, at 7:30 p.m. at the Barnett National Bank. Main feature of the evening will be the club's regular bimonthly auction.

A 1961 proof set will be offered as a special prize.

I have been collecting coins for over 50 years and find Coin World one of the most informative numismatic publications I have had the pleasure to read.

Since retiring I have been able to enjoy the full pleasure of this wonderful hobby. In fact I enjoy this hobby to the extent that I manage and direct the advertising and grading of coins for Shelton Hobbies, 3010 Martindale Road, N. E., Canton, Ohio, without being on their payroll—the joy and pleasure derived from this work is more valuable to me than any other form of pay.

Enclosed is remittance for another year's subscription to Coin World. As a charter member I have enjoyed it the past year very much. I wish you continued success.

I have one protest to make and that is what I consider a too high rate for the classified ads. The little person cannot afford that high rate and I predict it will hurt you. Don't forget the little collector. He will stick with you if treated fairly.

R. F. Nance

I should like to take advantage on your "Letters to the Editor" column to express my sentiments on a subject to which I believe most numismatists have not given much thought or voice.

May I begin by saying, "Let's keep out of the government's business, and let's keep the government out of numismatics."

Although I am a coin collector, I am first and foremost a United States citizen, and I strongly believe that our government has more important things to do than to appease coin dealers or to police the coin hobby in any way.

My most recent transaction with the Bureau of Internal Revenue was very painful and I abhor the possibility that any of my tax money might be used for increasing the facilities at the mint to make billions of uncirculated rolls or proof sets, or to influence the gold import-export ratio, or to staff a bureau of coin detectives.

The present laissez-faire policy of the government toward the coin hobby (or industry) should be appreciated. What will your coin collection be worth if we lose any of the cold wars in which we are presently entangled? Or what could be done if the Government really called in all gold? Let's leave well enough alone!

I repeat, "Let's keep out of the government's business, and let's keep the government out of numismatics."

I read about P. Musolino finding an 1833 over 2 shield nickel. I, in turn, looked through my old coins and found one identically the same.

Oddly enough I bought this coin from a dealer for $1 in very good. I wondered about the date and never questioned it again until I saw the photo.

Thank you very much for publishing this photo as it opened my eyes to the interesting field of examining coins that were in question. This man had better luck than me. I never found a 1942/1 dime.

Many Coin Varieties

When the 13 colonies renounced allegiance to Great Britain and declared their independence in 1776, currency in use was of varied colonial assortment and no actual federal coinage occurred until 16 years later.

COINEW

Two months ago we first advertised "COINEW", since that time 5000 bottles have gone to the hands of collectors and dealers. Many who criticized "COINEW" have already reordered. We never expected such a terrific response but of course we are very happy about it. We are happy that "COINEW" has given the collectors a nice easy neat and fast way of cleaning their coins. Many of our customers have told friends about "COINEW" and they also have ordered.

HAVE YOU ORDERED YOUR BOTTLE OF "COINEW" YET?

The following are a few statements taken from letters received from both Dealers and Collectors:

We would like to order a dozen bottles of COINEW (those six bottles you sent last week went fast).

I have always stocked a little bit of all types of numismatic supplies except for coin cleaner. Recently I had 7 requests for your COINEW, so here goes an order.

I tested COINEW and it is very good, send me six bottles.

IF YOUR DEALER HAS NOT YET STOCKED COINEW, WE WILL BE HAPPY TO PROMPTLY FURNISH YOU A BOTTLE AT THE REGULAR PRICE OF $1.00 PLUS 25c TO COVER POSTAGE & HANDLING.

One dollar buys a bottle of COINEW at your local dealer... enough to clean hundreds of coins. If COINEW doesn't do all we claim, just return it. You will obtain an immediate refund.

We know we are secure in offering a money back guarantee. COINEW is revolutionary... after two years of testing, we know we've got a good thing! You don't risk a thing when you purchase COINEW. You are

HOW AND WHEN TO CLEAN A COIN

Before you attempt to clean your coins you must first decide if your coins should or should not be cleaned. Every coin has its own cleaning requirement. Be sure to experiment on cheap coins from change first before cleaning your better coins. Before cleaning a coin the collector must examine the coin carefully to decide what type of cleaning he will give it, so that he can increase the monetary value of the coins, and also give it the best state of preservation.

simply making an intelligent investment that can pay for itself over and over again... because your coins will be worth more!

COINEW IS A REAL SHOCKER! COINEW is a clear liquid. (No artificial coloring to deceive). It is simple and quick in its action. YOU JUST DIP THE COIN... THAT'S ALL! Rinse it off and there you are.

Swedish Coin Quiz Test Proffered By Columnist

By Axel Miltander
Bevaringsgaten 11
Gothenburg N, Sweden

For about one year ago I had a competition in Linn's Weekly Stamp News: "What do you know about Swedish stamps". Five different questions were given and the readers had to answer them. Today I planned to ask: What do you know about Swedish coins? I will give you five questions and you have only to answer "yes" or "no". Here it is: 1. Is it true that the last regular Swedish gold-coin was struck in 1936?

2. Is it true that the weight of a Swedish 20 crowns gold coin is about 9 grams?

3. Is it true that Swedish "copper"—coins were struck in iron during last war?

4. Is it true that we have nine different regular coins in circulation in Sweden?

5. Is it true that we have notes as well as coins in the denomination 5 crowns?

If you would like to join to the competition, send your answers (correct or not) to me. To the first five opened, correctly answered questions I will give a prize. It will be a nice Swedish coin to each of the five prize winners.

Names of the five prize-winners will be published in my column in Coin World as soon as possible as well as the correct answers to the questions. Remember that I must have your answers not later than three weeks from the date of this copy of Coin World.

Today I also wish to say "thank

Bergen Show September 30

The Bergen County Coin Club of River Edge, N. J., has announced the date for its second annual Bergen County Coin Show as Saturday, September 30, to be held in the Bergen Mall auditorium at Paramus, according to an announcement by club president Leon S. Rosenblum of Fair Lawn, N. J.

Immediate past president Walter Stefanacci has been appointed general chairman. Requests for detailed information may be addressed to him at 27 Roosevelt Avenue, Clifton, N. J.

Stefanacci was president at the time of first show, held last fall, which was attended by close to 10,000 visitors.

you very much" to all who have written nice letters to me.

I read your articles, says Larry Freeman in Ohio. Coin World is just one year old and I would say the top numismatic paper. We all like it and read it. I will also send a question to the paper. I got a transportation token dated Cleveland 1906. It is 88 mm in diameter. I do not have any information about it so I will write to Dick for help!

Another reader told me in a letter today that he had 6,000 U.S. tokens in his collection. It must be the biggest collection in this way, I suppose. Transportation tokens (or TT as I say as it is much more shorter) seems me to be the most popular in U.S.A. as well as in Sweden. In our country also the old mine tokens are much collected but rather scarce. They were struck for people working at mines in isolated places, far away from roads.

Goodbye—and see you later!

Club Renames Two Officers

Members of the Owensboro, Ky., Coin Club re-elected two of their 1961 officers to serve for another year, S. M. Fitts as president, and Roy M. Harrison as treasurer, when they held their annual election at a recent meeting.

Chosen vice president was Dr. M. David Orrahood, and Dudley R. Capelle, former sergeant at arms, was elected secretary, replacing R. H. Breckenridge and Mrs. C. D. McCool, respectively.

New sergeant at arms is Dan Boyett. On the board of directors is Vince Wheeler, Jerry Egan, Breckenridge, and junior representatives Bobby Kaplan and Wayne Howard.

The Owensboro club has scheduled its next meeting for Monday, June 12, to be held in the R.E.A. building, 1003 Allen Street, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Reeded Rarities

In 1836, two types of half dollars were coined, one with lettered edge as previous issues, the later one with reeded edges. Varieties of both exist, although much fewer in the reeded edge type, which is smaller in size than the lettered edge.

Variety Of Coinage

Upwards to fifty different kinds of coins and tokens were issued by and for use in the American colonies.

Lost Box Of Coins Returned

Man bites dog. Missing coins are returned!

Ambrose Palace, a Warren, Ohio, coin dealer, left a box of coins on the ground behind his car after a meeting of the Warren Coin Club at the Packard Park Shelter House.

The box was found and turned in to the club president, Jack Smith!

Finders were two junior members of the club, Roger Burns and Michael Zurvitz. They were presented with specially encased and engraved 1961 proof sets for their example of honesty by the club. Palace gave the pair $5.

"This is a breath of fresh air to a hobby that is suffering the plague of crime as none other in history," commented Warren club members.

New Illinois Club Meets June 1

The recently formed Virden, Ill., Coin Club scheduled its second regularly held meeting for Thursday, June 1, at the Virden Moose Lodge. Any collectors in the area were invited to attend. Officers have been chosen, headed by Louis Ferrero as president. Others include John Frey, vice president; Dick Lane, secretary, and Elmer Graham, treasurer.

Club Makes Gift

The Rock Island, Ill., public library was given as a gift from the Tri-Cities Coin Club the current issue of R. S. Yeoman's "Guide Book of U. S. Coins". Similar gifts were made by the club to all the public libraries in the area. Ernest H. Donaway, librarian of the coin club, was head of the committee to arrange the donations.

1943-PDS STEEL CENT SETS

Our Price $1.10 Per Set.
(as pictured, including holder)

Over the years, we have sold many unc. rolls and sets of BU steel cents. We were unable to use many of the cents in BU rolls because, although uncirculated, they were tarnished. We have recently had these tarnished uncirculated 1943-PDS cents re-plated so that they look as good as new. We now offer our uncirculated sets, replated to original brilliance, to you at these bargain prices. Each set comes, as pictured, in the silver lettered 50c Snap-Lok holder!

5 sets for	$ 5.00

Harry N. French, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., and Francis Marz, Pottsville, Pa., were the winners in the coin and currency competition at the Schuylkill Haven, Pa. Stamp and Coin Club's first show, held at the American Legion home.

Harry Kremer, Schuylkill Haven, and James Freeman, also of Pottsville, were winners in the stamp division.

According to Harry Naffin, chairman of the affair, and his co-workers, Benjamin Schnerring, Sockrates Dixon, Arlin Fegley and Bob French, there were 11 coin and currency displays and 13 stamp exhibits, valued at $15,000.

There were 17 dealers from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

A new product about to come on the market is a one-piece die cut coin mount page, put up by B & B Supplies of Fort Worth, Texas.

This is the regular size page and is made of genuine press-board, a tough and durable soil resistant material, according to the producers. These pages are three-hole punched to fit in binders, and more of them can be put in one binder than normally expected because of less bulk, the B & B company claims.

The pages will hold 12 2x2 cardboard holders which will slip in and out easily but will not spill out. Space is left for printing on the 2x2 holders and the press-board will take ink in case additional information is wanted below the openings.

Cost of the new page is 25 cents or 10 pages for $2 and they may be ordered from any recognized dealer.

Lincoln Cents Program Topic

S/Sgt. Robert Chappell spoke on the topic "All About Lincoln Cents" at a recent meeting of the Sonic Boom Coin Club of Fort Walton Beach, Fla.

Sgt. Chappell outlined the entire history of the Lincoln cent from its first appearance in 1909, and discussed various placements of designers' initials.

Election of officers will be held at the next meeting on Thursday, June 8. The club's July coin auction will be planned.

Nebraska Club Will Decide On Insignia

Final decisions are expected to be made on a club insignia, when the Platte Valley Coin Club of North Platte, Nebr., holds its next meeting on Wednesday evening, June 7. In the Blue Flame room of the Northwestern Public Service Company, at 7:30 o'clock.

Preliminary suggestions for an insignia were brought to the May session at the instigation of Mrs. Dorothy Steburg, presiding officer.

Kenosha Club Grows

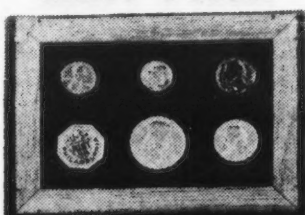

The Kenosha, Wisc., Coin Club has had such a great increase in membership and attendance that it has had to change its meeting place, and the next session, to be held Thursday, June 1, will take place at the Sheridan Lanes at 80th Street and Sheridan Road, starting at 8 p.m.

An auction was the feature of the last meeting of the club.

Chief Gives Silver

President Washington is said to have given some of his private plate to furnish silver for the coins.

Grab Spoon, June—Finders' Keepers!

A vacant lot full of gold and silver coins, all of them old, were dug up recently as residents of Lower Waverly, a district in North Baltimore, Md., struck gold—the minted kind!

Scores of coins including $10 and $20 gold pieces, silver dollars, French coins and other silver and gold pieces were unearthed.

The strike was made by Curtis Barnes, 12, and his brother, Barthel, 14, who were digging for fish worms in a vacant lot.

Within 20 minutes the area was alive with diggers—and no worm could possibly have survived the crush of humanity.

Men, women and children dug with shovels, spades, picks and trowels. One woman grabbed a soup spoon from the family dinner table.

Police came, shook their heads and left. It was a case of finders' keepers and grab the soup spoon, June.

Perry W. Fuller, Baltimore coin expert, recalled a find 20 years ago when $20,000 in coins were found in a vacant lot. The judge ruled in favor of the finder in that case.

Pennsylvania Club To Join ANA, MANA

The Bethlehem, Pa., Coin Club has voted to join the American Numismatic Association and the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association, according to a report from club officials.

The complete action is expected to be announced at the next meeting, scheduled for Wednesday, June 7, to be held at the Coca Cola plant on West Broad Street, starting at 7:30 p.m.

First Show At Charlotte

The first coin show ever to be staged by the Charlotte, N. C., Coin Club has been scheduled for Saturday, June 24, at the Charlotte Town Mall, from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Featured will be exhibits and a dealers' bourse, according to a report from Mrs. C. E. Ashley, vice president of the club.

Highlights of the exhibits are expected to be displays of Charlotte Mint gold coins as well as Confederate paper money and other numismatic rarities.

Dealers interested in bourse space are requested to contact William E. Hyatt, 4126 Wilkinson Boulevard, Charlotte 8, or by telephone at 399-9133.

The Charlotte club plans to make this show an annual event, Mrs. Ashley said.

Newark Show Set For Fall

Location of the Fourth Annual Newark, N. J., Coin Convention, set for Saturday, September 9, has been changed from the Y.M.C.A. to the Hotel Carlton, 22 East Park St., Newark, according to a report from the general chairman, Philip Rosenbaum, 1544 Walton Avenue, New York City 52. The Newark Coin club is host to the meeting.

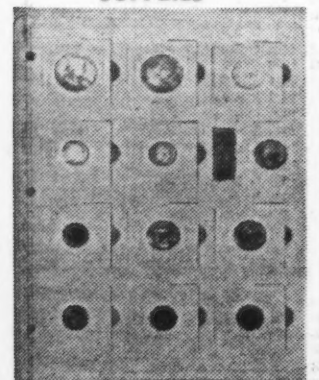

Bourse space is now available, Rosenbaum stated. Fees are $25 for the day, payable in advance with application. Included will be one table, one exhibit case and one name card. Applications should be sent to Rosenbaum.

Blind Hobbyist In Kentucky Club

One of the most enthusiastic members of the Tri-State Coin Club of Middlesboro, Ky., is J. Will Robinson. Robinson is blind.

A former Navy veteran, Robinson lost his eyesight through an accident in 1946. He joined the Tri-State club shortly after its recent organization.

This is his second venture into numismatics—in 1952 he gathered together a collection of 1,200 Indian Head cents and 1,800 Liberty Head nickels. To his regret, he turned them into the bank.

Now his son, Claude, 10, a fourth grader, has become interested, and so Robinson's back in the hobby.

Claude helps his father with his collection which the senior Robinson files carefully in order so he can reach for the correct coin.

Robinson says the coins "give me something to talk about. There are very few old Navy chiefs in Middlesboro.

William B. King is president of the club; Perry H. Siler, vice president, and Albert Randolph, treasurer. Blanche Knuckles is secretary.

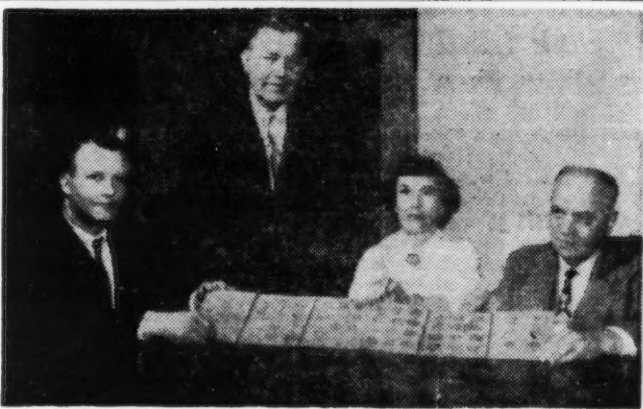

Fall Convention To Occupy Iowans

Preliminary plans for next fall's State Convention of the Iowa Numismatic Association, set for September 30-October 1 in the Hotel Tallcorn, Marshalltown, will be discussed at the next meeting of the host Central Iowa Coin Club of Marshalltown, to be held Wednesday, June 7, at the Fisher Community Center, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Allan Eddy of Rhodes, Iowa, club secretary, has been named general secretary for the State Convention, and requests for information on bourse space, exhibits, and so on should be addressed to him, according to Jack Mummey, publicity chairman for the club.

The Tri-State, Ky., Coin Club exhibit caught the eye of a youthful money fancier in its window display at Montgomery Ward's on Fountain Square. The club observed National Coin Week, and the display showed one of every type coin in the United States from 1795 to the present.

Club Meets In Times Office

Officers of the Muskingum County Coin Club in Ohio are, left to right, Charles Gear, secretary; William Johnstone, president; Mrs. Ernestine Donofrio, treasurer, and Walter Mays, vice president. The club meets the first Wednesday of each month in the Zanesville Times-Recorder Office. Members come from Newark, Cambridge, Coshocton, Zanesville and from Muskingum county. The year-old club has 60 members.

Ohio Club Readying Show

Show Becomes International

Greater Falls Club Celebrates

The first birthday of the Greater Fall River Coin Club of Fall River, Mass., was celebrated at a special meeting held at the Y.M.C.A. and highlighted by the election of the club's first honorary member.

Frank D. Silvia Jr., of 18 Dumont Ave., Somerset, was elected by unanimous vote to become the first honorary member of the club.

The 15-year-old honorary member is a hemophiliac and bedfast.

Vice president and charter member, Clemente Brandao placed his coin collection on display. He also spoke on the six stages in making the Kennedy inaugural medal which was later given as a special prize.

John Assad won the bronze inaugural medal which was donated by Robert Dempsey of Providence.

Other prizes included a Pony Express medal, donated by Paul Serabain and won by Leo Gagnon; a U. S. Constellation medalion donated by Stanley Tobin and won by Americo Almeida; an Hawaiian medal won by Stanley Rack and three key rings, won by Parker Cook, Richard Pelletier and John C. Costa.

Leaflets, given to the club by the Chase Manhattan Bank, were distributed to all members. The leaflets disclosed the origin of the motto, "In God We Trust," which appears on U. S. currency. Also, a book "Museum of Monies of the World", was donated to the club.

Refreshments were served by John Assad, Parker Cook and Mrs. Alice B. Costa.

Dues were to be collected at the next meeting, May 18. Members voted to have two meetings a month.

President "Mac" Almeida urges all members to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Warren Club Meets Wednesday, June 7

The Warren, Ohio, Coin Club has scheduled its next meeting for Wednesday, June 7, to be held at the Packard Shelter House in Warren, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the last meeting, members were to hear William Allison talk on the subject of "Type Collecting", and a special prize of a 1961 proof set was to be awarded.

Unique Plexiglas display cases have just been created by Barron Plastics, Inc., Woodlawn, for First National Bank of Cincinnati. They are custom-designed to hold a representative display of U. S. coins, showing types and denominations used in the past 165 years of regular coinage in this country.

The cases were custom-made by Barron in a modern styling which affords complete visibility and flexibility.

Each of the three units is comprised of plastic frames holding four interchangeable panels. Any of these panels can be removed and changed at will, without disturbing the remainder.

They will be made available by First National to its "correspondent banks" in various midwestern cities.

Julian S. Marks, well-known numismatist, worked closely with Barron on the bank's behalf in designing the cases.

Included in the three-case display are denominations long out of use, such as 1/2c pieces, 2c pieces, 3c pieces, half dimes, 20c pieces and trade dollars. In addition to copper, nickel and silver coins, there is a complete type-set of gold coins.

The display of paper currency is a type-set of large $1 bills and a type-set of various denominations issued in fractional currency: 3c, 5c, 10c, 15c, 25c, and 50c pieces. Also, a full type-set of commemorative half dollars, Lafayette dollar and Isabella quarter.

Barron, creators of custom fabrication and injection molding, carry a complete stock of all types of plastic: rod, sheet and tube.

Juniata Valley Club Active

English Bronze Coin Study Published By Detroit Dealer

"Catalog and Check List of English Bronze Coins: 1860 to Date" was published recently by L. R. Docks, Detroit rare coin dealer. Mint reports, latest prices, illustrations of special mint marks and information concerning varieties are given.

Docks states appearance of this list was necessary after a sharp rise in the popularity of English bronze coins, resulting from the introduction of English coin albums by the Whitman Publishing Co.

The Detroit dealer feels that the information in his book meets the needs of most collectors specializing in English farthings, half-pennies and pennies.

Copies of the catalog may be obtained for 50 cents by writing to Canterbury Coin Publications, P. O. Box 306, College Park Station, Detroit 21, Mich.

Pittsburg Club Chooses Officers

Pittsburg Coin Club, Kan., elected officers at their recent meeting. The newly-elected officeholders are: Paul McPherson, president; Jim Jones, vice president; Mrs. Arlene McPherson, secretary, and Alfred Martens, treasurer.

A coin auction was held and numerous special prizes were awarded. The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 7, at the Pittsburg Public Library.

COIN WORLD CELEBRATES THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL WITH A COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Available Only
To Coin World
Subscribers!

(Non-subscribers, see new subscription form in this issue.)

Available Only
From Coin World!

(One of a series)

The firing on Fort Sumter one hundred years ago marked the beginning of the War between the States. As we begin the five year centennial of this historic event, Coin World joins in commemorating this event by preserving in metal the heads of state for both the North and the South: Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis.

Bronze medals have been struck bearing the portraits of these two leaders. Above the three-quarter view of Lincoln and Davis appear the words: 1861 - CENTENNIAL - 1961, below, the words: WAR BETWEEN THE STATES.

On the reverse of this medal is a symbol familiar to more than 60,000 collectors — the revolving globe of the world,

Coin World's trademark! An entire series of these commemorative medals is planned, maintaining the continuity of this reverse. Each year, a prominent event or person will be placed on the obverse portraying a part in a series of American numismatic events.

You will certainly want to get the first one in this series of Coin World medals. These half-dollar-sized medals will form a companion piece to your commemorative half dollars, so-called half dollars, and other half dollar size medallion series.

Rain Fails To Dampen Centralia Show Spirit

The Centralia, Ill., Coin Club seems to have good shows and bad weather.

Last fall's Show competed on the same dates with two other shows in the same area, and drew 1,000 visitors.

This spring's Show, held in early May, competed with rain and drew 500, according to a report from club officials.

It rained both days of the two-day Show, the rain turning into a cloudburst the second night with 11 inches totalled. The town was isolated the next morning, but all the out-of-town dealers had left. Last one was Dan Messer of New York who just barely got out before all the roads were closed.

Bourse tables were occupied by 28 dealers. In the auction, gold and S-Mint Lincoln cents sold well. During the Show, special prizes were awarded as follows: Safe, Paul Slater, Flora, Ill.; $20 gold piece, Ray Kuester, Centralia; $10 gold, Frozen Food Locker, Centralia; $5 gold, W. L. R. Dodson, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; $2½ gold, W. J. Owen, Centralia, and Coin display case, R. F. Childers, Salem, Ill.

Albert Brinkman was general chairman, assisted by Lawrence Arnine and Roy Kuester, co-chairmen, and Jim Keele, club president.

Pillar Dollar Emblem Selected By New Club

The "Pillar Dollar" has been chosen as the emblem of one of California's newest clubs, "Pillars Limited" organized recently at Van Nuys, Calif., and reported by newly elected president E. C. Borgolte.

Charter memberships have been closed at 20, and for the time being, total memberships are limited to 50 adults, with new members being accepted only by invitation of another member, according to Borgolte.

First guest speaker at a club meeting was Dr. H. H. Davis of Los Angeles, who discussed the history and method of making U. S. coins before and after the founding of the Mint.

The last session of the group was a social event, with the entire membership having dinner at a restaurant before holding the regular meeting. Next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 21, at a place to be announced.

"Pillars Limited" has applied for membership in the American Numismatic Association, and the Numismatic Association of Southern California. New officers besides Borgolte include:

Walter J. Burch, vice president; Mrs. Hazel R. Gillie, secretary;

Stanley Buxner, treasurer; and Mrs. Ellen D. Borgolte, Mrs. Dolores Buxner, Danny B. Crabb and Joseph Mirkovich, board of directors.

CALIFORNIA GOLD

During the California Gold Rush days, the lack of a convenient small change resulted in private coinage — before the opening of the San Francisco Mint in 1854 — of octagon 25c and round 50c, and $1.00 size. We now have Liberty and Indian Head California souvenir gold. These are historical and colorful souvenir gold tokens you will be proud to own!

Personalities Theme Of Talk

Souvenir wooden nickels commemorating the 200th meeting of the Bay Cities, West Los Angeles, Calif., Coin Club, proved to be a popular item at the April meeting, according to Mrs. E. Carolyn Nestruck, secretary of the club.

Ralph Mitchell provided an enlightening and humorous program on "What to Collect." One highlight of his talk was his description of "Personalities I Have Known in the Coin Business". He listed Joiner, Dissenter, Fixer, Glory Seeker, Eager Beaver, Promissory Note Boy, Slow Motion, Check Writer and Big Shot Dealer.

Among the displays were Max Wedertz, gods on Greek coins and the missiles named after them; Clyde Grimm, miscellaneous display of colonial coins and medals; Thelma Case, odd and curious; Lewis Upton, coins from different countries; Pauline Ney, medals; Carolyn Nestruck, 19th century coins and Millicent Fishel, paper money.

Illinois Club Recently Formed

Crawford County, Ill., now has its first coin club, with the recent organization of a collectors' group at Robinson, the County seat, according to a report from its newly chosen secretary, Dorothy Reavill.

Other first-time officers include Charles Correll, president, and E. Dutch Byrnes, vice president. Formal name of the organization, which plans to meet the last Friday of each month at the Woodworth Hotel in Robinson, is the Crawford County Coin Club.

Eastern Club Has First Birthday

The Blackstone Valley Coin Club of Whitinsville, Mass., celebrated its first birthday anniversary at a meeting held recently in the Whitinsville Memorial gymnasium.

On the program was a talk on obsolete paper money by Richard Roberts, who displayed Confederate States paper money and Broken Bank bills.

ATTENTION DEALERS!

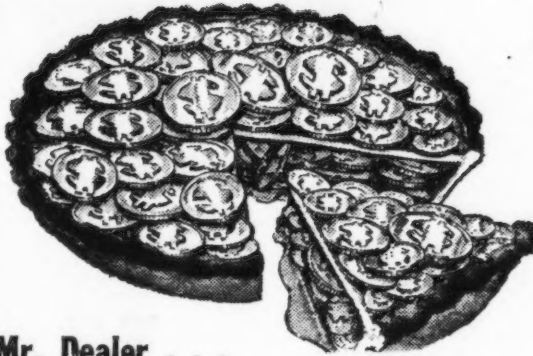

If you are a legitimate dealer, either in coins, or coin supplies, or both, or a part-time dealer of good character and reputation, and you are a member of the A.N.A., or some coin fraternity, and you wish to promote the better interest in Numismatics, then you should be a member of the RETAIL COIN DEALERS ASSOCIATION, INC., known as the "RCDA".

Membership is $10.00 for the first year, and you may write the details in your letter for membership, or write for an application.

THRIFTY 3-TIME AD RATE!

Coin World's newest money-saving CASH RATE favors using the same ad for three consecutive weeks because it thriftily will help sell a special lot of coins for a dealer or help a collector to obtain that "hard to find" item. Since introduction recently, the Thrifty 3-Time Rate has registered a smashing success by filling a need for collectors and dealers alike. See schedule below for thrifty uses you can make of it! This 3-Time Rate only applies when payment accompanies order.

Here is a typical example of the advantages in using a low-cost WEEKLY advertising contract: Dealer John Jones runs 3 quarter-page ads within three months, each at the one-time rate. His total cost for the three ads is $153.00.

Dealer Henry Smith has used his sharp pencil and compared the contract ad rates. Result . . . he has a 52 week advertising contract! In the same three months, he has inserted 3 quarter-page ads and 13 Classified Display one-inch "rate-holder" ads — a total of 16 ads at a total cost of $152.75. Which dealer got the most mileage from his advertising dollar?

Dealer Smith knows that, with his 52-week ad contract with a minimum of his one inch "rate holder" ad appearing EVERY WEEK, he can run a quarter-page ad, a half-page ad or even a full page ad at the lowest ad rates for these sized ads in any coin newspaper! He also knows that he gets the added premium of the WORLD'S LARGEST PAID CIRCULATION among ready-to-buy coin collectors in the United States and Canada.

Dealer Smith has been busy every week "talking" to more than 60,000 collectors . . . identifying himself with a particular branch of numismatics. Dealer Jones has been content to speak up only three times. Which dealer gets more business from collectors? Whose name is mentioned at coin club meetings?

Any way you figure it, YOUR BEST BUY is a Coin World WEEKLY advertising contract! You get MORE SPACE to reach MORE COLLECTORS for FEWER DOLLARS!

NEW POLICY ON MAIL BID SALES

We will accept Mail Bid Sale ads smaller than four inches in size. However all Mail Bid Sale ads of 10 inches or less will appear at the start of the Classified Pages in Classification No. 00 (Double Zero). No fixed price items are to be included in the same ad. Specify closing date, otherwise we establish 10 days from publication date.

THRIFTY CREDIT! $10.00 MINIMUM

Non-contract advertisers should send cash (check or money order) with all ads under $10.00. On orders over $10.00, you may send cash in advance or bank references. We will grant charge accounts to any advertiser establishing credit references. Dun and Bradstreet notification is given on all delinquencies.

USUAL RULES

FOR BUYER AND SELLER

These rules prevail for all mail bid sales advertised in Coin World:

1. Bid by lot number. No lots broken up. Bid for entire lot.
2. Bids recorded in order received. In case of tie, first bidder gets lot.
3. No "buy" or "unlimited" bids accepted.
4. No commission charged. Shipping, postage, or insurance costs to be paid by bidder.
5. Credit must be established in advance; or 25% deposit sent with bids.
6. High bidders to be notified, payment to be made on notification.
7. All coins guaranteed genuine and as described. Buyer assumes responsibility for his errors in bidding.
8. No bids accepted from persons under 21 unless signed by parent guaranteeing payment for successful bids.
9. No lots may be returned without written permission, usually granted, but must be asked for within three to five days, after receipt of lot.
10. Any exceptions to above rules will be so stated in offering advertisement.

Almost Everyone Prefers America's First Family of Coin Albums

THE LIBRARY OF COINS

By Any Standard, Still The Best!

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by THE LIBRARY OF COINS. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8 1/4" x 6 1/4", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

The Library of Coins represents the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years, and was several years in development. Designed by numismatists, the Library of Coins is designed to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

The Official Medal Of The CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL 1861 1961

The Coin and Currency Institute, Inc., of New York and California has been appointed sole national distributor of this medal, which commemorates officially the Centennial of the Civil War.

The medal, which is 2½ inches in size, is being issued under authority of the Civil War Centennial Commission, which was created by an Act of Congress. The medal will be struck by the Medallion Art Company from designs and sculptor's models that have been approved by the U.S. Government Fine Arts Commission in Washington, D.C.

As can be seen from the above illustration, the obverse bears the portraits of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant and Gen. Robert E. Lee. The reverse shows the seal of the Civil War Centennial Commission, having as its main theme, a Union and Confederate soldier. The medal will be sold in its own specially made container and will come with a printed, informative leaflet.

In addition to the bronze medal, there is an issue of pure silver medals, which is limited to 25,000 serially numbered pieces. The purity of the silver is greater than .999 fineness.

PRICES OF THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL MEDAL

The official prices of the Civil War Centennial Medal follow:

THE BRONZE CENTENNIAL MEDAL....$4⁰⁰

THE PURE SILVER CENTENNIAL MEDAL....$30⁰⁰

Please note: Because of the limited issue, the silver medals are offered subject to being sold out. Those wishing silver medals should place their order now. Earlier this year many thousands were disappointed when their orders for silver Inaugural medals were placed too late. Because of the overwhelming national interest in the Civil War, it is expected that the silver medals will be quickly sold out.

Established dealers wishing to carry this medal for resale should write to us at once for our terms.
